Kennedy Wants 'Final Answer' On 5th Debate

Vice President Says Depression Talk Won't Work | Demo Nominee Campaigning In Pennsylvania

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Vice President Richard M. Nixon charged today that Sen. John F. Kennedy is trying to scare Americans into voting Democratic by predicting a depression. But it won't work, Nixon said.

"It won't work because the American people have more sense than Kennedy has," Nixon told one of a series of cheering crowds which turned out to greet his campaign special train on its whistle stop tour across the pivotal state of Illinois.

HAS A PUN

"Note that I said sense, not dollars," Nixon punned. "He's got more dollars than you have but you have more sense than he does."

The GOP presidential nominee was apparently getting the best of a bad cold and sore throat which plagued him during yesterday's hectic campaigning in Michigan. Egg throwing incidents in Michigan helped heat up Nixon's temper, but he was busy today wooing Illinois' 27 electoral votes on a schedule which took him all the way to Davenport, Iowa.

Tomorrow Nixon flies back into Illinois, where he will spend the day motorcading through Chicago's heavily populated and traditionally Republican suburbs.

HEAPS SCORN

In one rear platform talk after another today Nixon heaped scorn on Kennedy's warning in Michigan Wednesday that the economy was sliding into a slump under GOP rule.

Nixon said Detroit newspapers that headlined this charge also were proclaiming in other headlines that auto sales had just reached a new high.

"Sen. Kennedy is betting on a recession," Nixon said at Mattoon, Ill. "But the American people are betting on prosperity. Kennedy is wrong and the people are right, and that's why they are not going to elect him on Nov. 8."

Sen. John F. Kennedy called on Vice President Richard M. Nixon today to give a "final answer by tomorrow night" on whether he will agree to a time and place for a fifth television debate.

He said in a telegram to the GOP candidate that "the American people will know where to place the responsibility if Nixon's answer is negative."

READY TO MEET

The Democratic nominee added:

"I am ready to meet for the debate at any time in any city."

Kennedy's statement came as representatives of both sides met again in an effort to work out an acceptable format for the program.

In a bid for the Keystone State's 32 electoral votes, Kennedy said Nixon dared not use his "never had it so good" slogan in these economically depressed areas.

The nominee, answering Nixon's charges that Kennedy was "downgrading America," said:

SELLING SHORT

"It is Mr. Nixon—not I—who is downgrading America. It is Mr. Nixon—not I—who is selling America short.

In a speech prepared for delivery at Scranton, Kennedy said Nixon came to Scranton last month "to apologize" for two Republicans vetoes of Democratic bills to aid depressed areas and also "to make some new promises."

"I do not come to apologize," Kennedy said, "the Democratic Party comes with a record of performance and I advise you not to trade performance for promises."

NOBEL COMMITTEE RULES OUT 1960 PEACE PRIZE

OSLO, Norway (UPI) — The Nobel Committee of the Norwegian Parliament announced today that there will be no 1960 peace prize. It was the 14th time that no award was made.

The prime candidate was reported to have been United Nations Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold for his efforts in the Congo. But he was ineligible since the Congo crisis came after the Jan. 31 deadline for consideration of candidates.

The committee gave no reason for its decision.

The prize money was reserved for next year, a brief announcement from the committee said. The amount of this year's prize was not disclosed.

Protest Made In U.N. Talk

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Soviet Union demanded publicly today that Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold seek the release of a Russian U.N. official arrested by U.S. authorities on spy charges.

Soviet Delegate Platon D. Morozov threw this demand into a speech in the General Assembly's Legal Committee.

"The secretary-general," he said, "should take immediate steps to put an end to this act against this Soviet citizen, who had an important post in the secretariat and has been deprived of the possibility of carrying out his functions at a very important time, and without justification."

The Russian suspect, Igor Yakovlevich Melikh, 47, was arrested last night in New York, along with an accused accomplice, German-born Willie Hirsch, 52.

The United States today gave Russian officials permission to interview Melekh. The State Department said U.S. authorities should have the same right to see U.S. airmen imprisoned in the Soviet Union.

More Financing For Roads Urged

I-J Special Report

SANTA ROSA — State Sen. Randolph Collier of Yreka called for additional financing for both state highways and local roads in a speech at the Redwood Empire Assn. convention here today.

Collier said that by 1980, county roads and city streets will have to accommodate twice as many cars as they now do. Financing presents a problem.

Passage of legislation for increased gasoline taxes would be difficult, he said.

He suggested possibility of an increase in motor vehicle license fees or the in-lieu tax. He seemed to favor the in-lieu tax idea, which is the state charge against automobiles in place of county taxation on personal property.

An in-lieu increase should be reserved to the cities and counties for road use, he said, but local government agencies should produce matching funds.

Turning to the proposed revision of the split in gas tax funds between northern and southern California, Collier said he had no fear about revision to the possible detriment to the north of the present split of gas tax funds, 45 per cent to the north and 55 to the south.

A recent highway study showed that more than 50 per cent of the road deficiencies in the state were in northern California, he said. However, he warned that if Proposition 15 passes and the south gains control of both the Assembly and State Senate, the division of highway funds might be imperilled.

Collier said that the federal government must develop a more stable policy in regard to federal highways. No proper highway planning can be done, he pointed out, if financing is on a year-to-year basis.

It is time that aviation, too, must support itself, the senator went on. Airports must "get off the backs" of the

Pillowcase Thief Takes $4,000 In Loot

Sausalito was struck last night by a "pillowcase" burglar who made away with approximately $4,000 worth of loot, including gold and silver tableware.

The loot was so large the thief took bed sheets as well as pillowcases to carry it way, said Sausalito police.

Victims were Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Vredenburg, who recently moved into a new home at 125 Cloud View Road.

Mrs. Vredenburg told police she returned home about 9 o'clock last night to find her house ransacked, the floor strewn with all manner of belongings. Entry had been made through a front window, which had been jarred open with a screwdriver.

Mrs. Vredenburg, had only a partial list of missing things this morning. She said she is missing two Bavarian gold dishes, a set of gold salt and pepper shakers eight inches tall, gold relish dishes, sterling silver salt and pepper shakers as well as other silver, candle holders, three watches, two cameras and a box of cuff links.

U.N. Support Sought On Arms Compromise

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—In an effort to head off a Soviet bloc boycott of U.N. disarmament debate, India and six other nations sought support today for a compromise proposal aimed at bringing the West and the Soviets back to the arms negotiating table.

Indian Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon hinted at the plan last night in a two-hour speech before the 99-nation political committee.

Informed sources said India has drawn up a nine-point proposal with Burma, Mexico, Sweden, Venezuela, the United Arab Republic and Yugoslavia.

Diplomatic informants said the United States reacted favorably to the proposal, but the Soviets complained it left out any mention of Premier Khrushchev's proposals for a general disarmament pact.

The Soviet Union and other Soviet bloc members have threatened to boycott the disarmament debate here unless Khrushchev's plan is accepted as the sole basis for negotiations.

Sonoma Wins Title To Bodega Bay

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Sonoma County has won title to Bodega Bay, previously held by the State Lands Commission, after a presentation by consulting engineers and the commission staff.

The move was approved yesterday by the commission after Supervisor N. Guidotti of Sonoma County appeared briefly before the group and introduced the Santa Rosa consulting engineer of the firm of Sarles, Brelje and Race to make the county's presentation.

Details of the proposal were explained to the commission and a staff recommendation as to the acceptability was approved.

The staff recommendation read in part:

"The County of Sonoma having presented to the State Lands Commission under date of Sept. 29, 1960, a plan for improvement and development of certain tide and submerged lands in Bodega Bay . . . the commission now determines that such a plan and the improvement contemplated therein would if completed constitute substantial improvement within the meaning of the statutes of 1959 and said plan is hereby conditionally approved . . ."

12 Die In Montana Airliner Crash

MISSOULA, Mont. (UPI) — A Northwest Orient Airlines four-engine DC-4 crashed into a mountainside 22 miles west of here today, killing all 12 persons aboard.

Newsman Don Kinney telephoned from the scene that there were no survivors.

He said witnesses told him the plane, flying upside down, smashed into the mountain and burned.

1st Half Of '60 Showed Crime Rise, Mosk Says

PALO ALTO (AP)—Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk said today the first half of 1960 showed an increase in crimes in California proportionally greater than the increase in the state's population for that period.

In an address at the annual meeting of sheriffs of California, Mosk said that there had been an increase of 17.1 per cent in the number of crimes reported by sheriffs and police the first half of this year over the comparable period last year.

The attorney general noted that there was one bright aspect in the state's crime picture—the absence of the syndicate type of operation.

Quoting figures from a mid-year summary compiled by the State Bureau of Criminal Statistics, Mosk said that 20,705 felony complaints were filed after arrests in California for the first six months of 1960 compared with 17,750 for the same period in 1959.

Among these were 329 homicide complaints this year, compared with 259 for the first half of last year, or a boost of 22.8 per cent. There likewise were increases in forgery, burglary, grand theft, robbery, aggravated assault, sex offenses and auto theft complaints filed.

Mosk said that the number of narcotics complaints filed was the only category in which there was a decrease in the first half of 1960 compared with the first half of 1959, dropping 2.5 per cent.

Juvenile delinquency arrests by sheriffs and police in the first six months this year totaled 89,789, up 9.1 per cent above the 79,478 arrests in the first half of last year.

In this category, San Francisco Bay Area arrests totaled 24,384 the first six months of the year against 19,230 in the 1959 period, for an increase of 25 per cent.

Incidents May Cancel Marin Football Game

Rising football fever at Tamalpais and Redwood High Schools, which almost bubbled into violence yesterday, remained below the boiling point today with this warning:

If any further incidents develop, tomorrow afternoon's game at Kentfield between the two schools will be canceled.

Sheriff's deputies and police remained poised for action all day yesterday and today, as reports of impending raids and gang fights filtered into police headquarters.

Actual physical damage thus far has been almost nil. Yesterday morning, Redwood students raided Tamalpais territory and changed the big T on the hill just east of the school to an R.

Then about noon, word flashed that Tamalpais students were headed for Greenbrae to retaliate against a big R on a hill near Marin General Hospital.

Larkspur police and sheriff's deputies reached the rendezvous point and dispersed about 50 boys from both schools.

About 6 p.m., Corte Madera police learned that a gang of Tamalpais students were "en route to wreck the Redwood campus."

Larkspur Police Chief Howard Clark dispatched a police car to the campus, but all was quiet. However, a Redwood Giant sign on the campus had been cut down.

At Tamalpais High School, Vice Principal John George said a sign on the senior bench was removed recently, and in its place was a sign that read: "Beat Tam."

An exchange rally scheduled between both schools was canceled yesterday because of the increasing number of incidents.

Seventeen Redwood students were suspended from school for two days yesterday. Tamalpais boys who raided Greenbrae were put on supervised study for two hours as punishment for going off campus.

Nixon Would Visit Europe Satellites

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Vice President Richard M. Nixon promised yesterday that if he is elected president he will visit all of the satellite nations of Eastern Europe.

Nixon, shrugging off heckling as he campaigned through Michigan and a possible attempt to derail his train, said the purpose of the visits would be to "proclaim again America's friendship for these people, to reaffirm our trust in their ultimate deliverance."

He carried his bid for votes in the industrial states into Illinois today.

EGGS THROWN

Although he twice was made a target by egg throwers and was subjected to what his press secretary called "goon squad" heckling, Nixon pronounced a whistle-stopping run through Michigan the best day of his Republican presidential campaign.

He pointed his special train toward primarily Republican sections of Illinois before a night speech across the Iowa line in Davenport. He bid for minority bloc support with the pledge to visit European Communist satellites if elected.

Herbert G. Klein, Nixon's press secretary, announced that a track foreman had discovered near Fort Wayne, Ind., a piece of metal tied to a track over which the Nixon special was to pass during the night.

NOT A BOMB

He said Secret Service operatives had investigated and found that the metal, which appeared to be part of an old transformer, was not a bomb. He said that C. R. Frew, Pennsylvania Railroad trainmaster at Fort Wayne, had reported the metal might have derailed a train if it had not been discovered.

Charles J. Flaherty, a superintendent of transportation for the Pennsylvania Railroad said that although the metal could have derailed the train he suspects that only a Halloween trick may have been involved.

At an outdoor rally in Muskegon, Mich., last night—where he attacked vigorously the economic views of his Democratic rival, Sen. John F. Kennedy—Nixon encountered heckling from a small segment of the otherwise friendly crowd.

BAD MANNERS

"I've been heckled by experts, and we'll take care of you," the vice president told the group. "All you do is show your bad manners. I didn't hire you, now go away."

Some of the hecklers bore Kennedy signs aloft. Their catcalls and shouts for Kennedy died out after Nixon's rebuke.

It was the third time during the day that Nixon had been a target. Badly aimed eggs, which fell far short, were tossed in his direction when he was speaking at Jackson, Mich. In Grand Rapids earlier, three tomatoes were tossed his way.

Klein said these demonstrations from otherwise friendly crowds indicated that "organized goon squads" were attempting "disruptive" tactics.

Nixon told an applauding crowd at the dedication of a field house in Muskegon that if he is elected president he intends to visit all of the satellite nations of Eastern Europe. He specifically named Poland, which he has visited previously, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria and Romania.

He said he hopes that if Senator Kennedy wins he will make such visits.

Columnist's Nixon Charge Held Baseless

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Justice Department has branded as baseless "innuendo" a report by columnist Drew Pearson that it settled an anti-trust case against a company owned by industrialist Howard Hughes because he made a $205,000 loan to Vice President Richard M. Nixon's brother, Don.

"The fact is that this department commenced its action against this company after the loan was made," the department said in a statement yesterday.

'IMPROVEMENT'

Pearson wrote that "the family of Richard M. Nixon" received the loan from the Hughes Tool Co. on Dec. 10, 1956. He said that problems Hughes had been having with the government subsequently had undergone an "improvement."

The Justice Department said it filed an anti-trust complaint in New York against the Hughes company, on Aug. 2, 1957. It said the case was settled on April 4, 1958.

COMPLAINT CHARGE

The complaint charged the Hughes concern with conspiring with three German manufacturers of oil drilling equipment to limit imports into the United States and suppress competition in that field.

The consent judgment arrived at in the case "is regarded as a completely satisfactory settlement by the department," the statement said.

Nixon's campaign manager, Robert N. Finch, previously called the Pearson report "absolute nonsense" and "another Pearson smear." He said the loan in no way involved the vice president.

Pope's Envoy Rules Out Any Political Stand

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—Pope John XXIII's top spokesman in this nation says "the Catholic bishops of the United States have never taken any political position similar to that taken by the bishops of Puerto Rico."

Archbishop Egidio Vagnozzi, apostolic delegate to the United States, added in a statement yesterday: "I am confident, also, no such action would ever be taken by the heirarchy in this country."

The archbishop commented concerning the action of the three Roman Catholic bishops of Puerto Rico who had a pastoral letter read last Sunday directing Puerto Rican Catholics not to vote for the Popular Democratic Party, which it said had passed laws permitting the teaching of birth control and permitting sterilization.

The letter brought strong criticism in the island and in the United States, where Democratic presidential candidate John F. Kennedy's Catholic religion has been made an issue.

Vagnozzi released his statement without elaboration while in Mobile to attend the 50th anniversary ceremony of Archbishop Thomas J. Toolen's ordination as a priest.

Agreement with the apostolic delegate's statement came immediately from Richard Cardinal Cushing, Roman Catholic archbishop of Boston, who said: "It is totally out of step with American tradition for ecclesiastical authority here to dictate the political voting of citizens."

Proposition 15 Fighters Form

David Winslow and Harold Morgan, co-chairmen of the Marin County Californians Against Proposition 15, announced today the formation of a 20-member steering committee to wage an all-out campaign against what he called a "Senate-packing measure."

The Nov. 8 ballot measure seeks to reapportion the State Senate and give seven senators to Los Angeles County.

"Under the terms of this Los Angeles-inspired scheme," they said in a joint statement, "Marin County would lose its senator and we would be forced to share a senator with Sonoma County."

Schools Boycotted

DETROIT (UPI)—Angry parents today kept more than 1,200 children out of classes at three predominently white schools to protest the transfer of 314 Negro pupils to the schools.

Parents had threatened a three-day boycott earlier this week when the Detroit Board of Education refused to call off the transfer of the Negro students from two overcrowded grade schools.

Queen's Doc For Liz

LONDON (AP) — Queen Elizabeth's surgeon has been called in as a consultant for Elizabeth Taylor, whose continuing illness is delaying work on a multi-million-dollar film about Cleopatra.

The royal doctor is Sir James Paterson Ross, surgeon to the queen since 1952. Miss Taylor is running a fever from a mysterious virus.

Death Probe Closes

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Dist. Atty. William B. McKesson yesterday closed the re-investigation of the 28-year-old death of actress Jean Harlow's husband with a slap at writer Ben Hecht for saying the suicide was a murder. "It now appears, by Hecht's own admission, that he apparently was peddling a wild and unconfirmed rumor as fact," McKesson said.

The action came after a district attorney spokesman yesterday questioned film director Henry Hathaway, named by Hecht in a recent Playboy magazine article as knowing undisclosed facts about Bern's gunshot death in 1932. The interview with Hathaway revealed nothing but rumors, said McKesson.

Austria To Check Air

Oilman Mailed Anti-Catholic Sermon Copies

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Wealthy Dallas oilman H. L. Hunt said yesterday he mailed copies of an anti-Catholic sermon prior to the Democratic National Convention in an effort to win the nomination for Texas Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson.

Hunt said he has not taken part in the presidential campaign between Sen. John F. Kennedy, a Roman Catholic, and Vice President Richard M. Nixon, a Quaker.

An official of a Senate investigating committee last week said he had evidence that Hunt paid for the printing and mailing of 102,000 copies of a sermon delivered by Dr. W. A. Criswell, pastor of the First Baptist church in Dallas.

"Many of my very best friends, including clergymen, are Catholic and I am not at all critical of the Catholic church," Hunt said in a statement.

He said the sermon "was indicative of the bitter controversy that would result if a religious issue were injected into the 1960 presidential campaign."

Three R Decline Seen

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Dr. Kimball Wiles, a professor of education at the University of Florida, predicts that high schools won't go back to the three R's.

Furthermore, he told a meeting of educators yesterday, the federal government will expand its financial support to include the humanities and social sciences as well as science and mathematics.

AMUSEMENT BUSINESS

Truman Suggests Nixonland Park

OAKLAND (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman suggests that Vice President Richard M. Nixon open a Nixonland amusement park "when he has to leave Washington on Jan. 20."

Truman's tongue-in-cheek address, prepared for a fund-raising dinner tonight, was released in advance.

"I do not feel bitterness tonight toward Richard Nixon," Truman's text said. "I feel concern and a touch of pity. I have been wondering what he could do after the election returns are in. He is too young to retire, and he will have to have some kind of a job.

"I think I have discovered what Nixon can do. He has considerable gifts of showmanship, and the ability to create all kinds of illusions. He should go into this amusement park business and open one of his own, which we could call Nixonland.

"One of the rules in Nixonland would be 'no cuss words'—because of the children there. Of course, in Nixonland there would be nothing to cuss about, because there our prestige would always be at an all-time high—and we would all be morally, spiritually, economically and militarily stronger than anybody else anywhere.

Nixonland would also be very neat. In fact, it would be as clean as a hound's tooth.

"The first thing to do in Nixonland would be to take a ride on the Nixon train. This would go — rather quickly — through 50-odd countries. The end of this ride would be quite exciting, with howling Communist mobs, and all the passengers would have to be rescued by the United States Marines.

"Then there would be the Nixon trip up the Congo River, through Communistland. And you would see stuffed Communists popping out from behind every bush. And Nixon would stand in the bow of the boat, and shoot them dead — with blanks.

"Another popular attraction would be the great Nixon submarine ride to the offshore islands. This submarine would go to Quemoy and Matsu, but not to Cuba. In fact, there would be a rule in Nixonland against mentioning Cuba. Anybody who mentioned Cuba would have to get off the submarine and swim home."

Donations Of $50 On Ship Cruise To Benefit Museum

Actor-adventurer Sterling Hayden will captain the schooner Wanderer on a bay cruise for 50 children Nov. 5 to raise funds for the Junior Museum of Marin.

A child may sail on the schooner for a $50 donation, it was announced. Hayden and his crew will be assisted by a number of chaperones. Children 9 years or older are eligible.

Persons who wish to contribute but have no children may arrange to send a child by contacting the museum.

Funds raised will help the operation of the museum's program of education for schools and youth groups of Marin. Reservations may be made at the Museum, 76 Albert Park Lane, San Rafael.

Three weeks after this cruise, the Wanderer is scheduled to leave on a charter cruise to Pitcairn, Tahiti and other Pacific Islands.

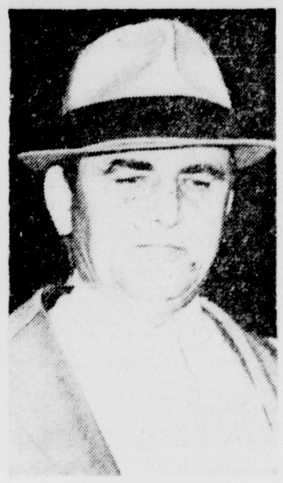
Illustrator, Russ U.N. Aide Arrested On Spying Charge

Pair Attempted To Map Military Installations

WILLIE HIRSCH
Espionage charge



IGOR MELEKH
Job at U.N.

NEW YORK (UPI)—A Russian United Nations secretariat official and a German-born illustrator were held today in $50,000 bail each on charges of spying for the Soviet Union. They allegedly sought military information for use in picking bombing targets.

Igor Yakovlevich Melekh, 47, who was in charge of translatinging U.N. documents in the Russian language, and Willie Hirsch, 52, were arrested swiftly and suddenly last night on a federal indictment charging they conspired with a former Russian U.N. official to obtain aerial photographs and a map of military installations around Chicago.

FOR TARGETS

The FBI said Melekh indicated the information was to be used to pinpoint bombing targets.

Melekh was seized in his West Side apartment in the middle of a birthday party for his 6-year-old son, Mikhail. Hirsch, who came to this country as a youth but was never naturalized, was arrested in his Greenwich Village apartment.

The other Russian left this country at the request of the United States after his contract with the United Nations ran out in March, 1959. He is Kirill S. Doronkin, former film editor of the U.N. secretariat's radio and visual division of public information. In January, 1959, the U.S. mission to the United Nations asked the secretary general to fire him for his activities in obtaining aerial photographs of the Chicago area.

INDICTMENT IN CHICAGO

Doronkin was named a co-conspirator but not a defendant in the indictment handed up yesterday by a federal grand jury in Chicago.

The indictment charged that Hirsch and Melekh met with "an individual" in Chicago, Newark, N.J., and New York several times in late 1958 and early 1959, and paid sums of money, presumably for information. It was not made clear whether one or more persons were involved, and the "individual" was not named in any of the encounters.

They also were charged with conspiring to violate the law requiring foreign agents to register with the State Department.

If convicted, they could receive fines of $25,000 or 25-year jail sentences, or both.

Hirsch, a medical artist who has been using the name John Gilmore, was described by a physician friend as "one of the world's greatest medical illustrators."

Soviet Minister Says Arrest Made To Divert Attention

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin said today the arrest of a Soviet member of the U.N. secretariat on espionage charges is "an obvious provocation."

Zorin said the arrest had been planned by Allen W. Dulles, head of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency, to divert attention of the U.S. spy plane flights over Soviet territory.

"Allen Dulles had to work it up to justify his acts," Zorin told a reporter.

The Soviet delegate said his delegation had protested last night to Andrew W. Cordier, executive assistant to U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold. The United Nations, so far, has maintained silence on the case involving Igor Melekh, head of the Russian language section of the Office of Conference Services.

Woman Loses $100,000 Suit For Damages

Novato housewife Patricia Stevens yesterday lost a $100,000 damage suit which she filed against San Rafael General Hospital and a San Rafael doctor for injuries she said she suffered after surgery.

A jury in the court of Judge Thomas F. Keating deliberated for about an hour and one-half and decided that Mrs. Patricia Stevens should get nothing. She had sued the hospital and Dr. James Marr Jr.

Mrs. Stevens claimed she had surgery on the left leg in February of 1958 by Dr. Marr. After the operation, she said, the bandages were applied too tightly, thus damaging the nerves and tissues of her leg.

Mystery Man Skips In Two-Death Probe

Jaimes Enrique Sandoval, mystery man in the deaths of Donald and Virginia Douglas of Millbrae, vanished from his San Francisco apartment today instead of keeping a date for interrogation by Dist. Atty. Keith Sorenson of San Mateo County.

Police Chief Larry Pickett of Millbrae promptly signed a warrant for Sandoval's arrest on a charge of perversion involving one of the Douglases' two sons. Bail was set at $10,000 cash or $20,000 bonds.

Sandoval had agreed to appear voluntarily at Sorensen's office in Redwood City at 10 a.m. today with his attorney, Arthur Hyman of San Francisco. The attorney appeared, but no Sandoval.

Sorenson planned to question Sandoval particularly regarding the reported death of 42-year-old Mrs. Douglas. There is only Sandoval's word that she fell from a Puerto Rican cliff into the sea. She had accompanied 29-year-old Sandoval to Puerto Rico, his native island, where he claimed he was going to collect a large estate.

Her husband, also 42, was found dead in his automobile in a secluded spot in Lucas Valley after he had flown to Puerto Rico to help in a futile search for his wife's body. He left a two and one-half page letter, addressed to Chief Pickett, which said "I was taken in very stupidly by Sandoval." The letter admitted he had advanced large sums to Sandoval to help him "collect the estate," and had forged Mrs. Douglas's name to a $16,000 mortgage to raise money for the mysterious Puerto Rican.

The charge lodged today was the second perversion charge against Sandoval. In 1957, he was convicted in Marin County of a perversion charge involving a teen-age boy. He was sentenced April 29, 1957, to 120 days in the county jail, and paroled on June 25 of the same year.

Douglas was an executive of a San Francisco firm and a civic leader in his home town of Millbrae. Mrs. Douglas worked part-time in the Millbrae city clerk's office.

Pair Arrested For Stealing From Store

Two San Rafael youths, already facing a trial on charges of auto theft, were arrested last night on charges of stealing clothes from Macy's Department Store in San Rafael

Police Officer John Kingston found $78.81 worth of clothing in a suitcase one of the suspects was carrying when he stopped them at Third and C Streets about 9:15 p.m.

Booked on a charge of petty theft were John S. Green, 21, a part time stock clerk at Macy's, and David M. Christian, 18, a student at Marin Junior College. Both live at 116 Greenfield Avenue, San Rafael.

Kingston said he saw the pair walking away from the department store parking lot at Fourth and Court Streets about 9 p.m. but did not stop them at that time.

The clothing, which included dungarees, handkerchiefs, a sweater, sport shirt, socks and two pairs of shoes, was believed to be taken from trash boxes behind the store where it had been hidden earlier in the day.

Green and Christian were held in lieu of $262.50 bail each to be arraigned this afternoon.

They are awaiting a court trial in superior court on Nov. 29 on a charge of stealing a San Anselmo woman's convertible on Sept. 15, and abandoning it in San Rafael. They were arrested the next day after police said they tried to pawn some golf clubs in a San Francisco pawn shop.

Artists' Reception Will Be Tomorrow

A public reception honoring exhibiting artists will open the seventh annual art show at the Marin Jewish Community Center, 1618 Mission Avenue, San Rafael, at 8 p.m. tomorrow. It was incorrectly reported yesterday that the reception would be tonight.

Displays will be open free to the public starting Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m., weekdays from 1 to 5 p.m. and Saturday from 8 to 10 p.m. through Nov. 6.

Girl's Hand Hurt By Elevator Door

Valerin Samantas, of 5 Dolores Street, San Rafael, had three stitches taken at San Rafael General Hospital to close the wounds. Mrs. Rachel Samantas, the mother, was pushing the stroller into the elevator on the second floor of the old courthouse when the little girl's hand was apparently caught between the door and the metal arm rest of the stroller.

Swedish Architects Visit Marin County

Fifty Swedish architects were to visit in Marin today, taking a bus trip to Muir Woods this morning and going to Sausalito for lunch.

The architects, on a tour of the United States and Mexico with their primary interest being architecture study, are being shown around the Bay Area by members of the Northern California Chapter of the American Institute of Architects, according to Sausalito architect Charles E. Finney.

ONE PROTEST RAISED AS GERMANS ENTER

NANCY, France (AP) — The peaceful passage of West German troops across eastern France for training near Reims provoked a lone official cry of protest last night.

A village councilman at the special meeting called to approve the ban pointed out that Auboue was well off the Germans' route.

But for the mayor it was the principle of the thing.

"They shall not pass," said the mayor—and the council approved the measure by acclamation.

Marin City Boy On Bike Injured

An 11-year-old Marin City boy was reported in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital after a bicycle he was riding collided with an automobile on Bridgeway last night near Gate 5.

The boy, Wayne Olivera, of 113 Drake Avenue, is being treated for head injuries.

Police said that both Olivera, on his bike, and Larry Lehman, 30, of 383 Lovell Avenue, Mill Valley, were going south on Bridgeway at about 5:30 p.m. Lehman told police that the boy was riding near the curb and then he turned into the side of the vehicle.

Recreation Meeting

Plans for enlargement of the fall program of the Larkspur-Corte Madera Recreation Commission were discussed last night and decisions are expected to be made at a next meeting set for Nov. 29, in place of the usual fourth Thursday which falls on Thanksgiving.

For every one hour of flight by a U.S. scheduled airline plane, there are about 19 hours of direct maintenance support.

Death Bed Confession Of Slaying

REDWOOD CITY (UPI)—Bones found in the garage of an elderly woman recluse were studied by laboratory technicians today to determine whether they were the remains of a young man she claimed to have murdered 33 years ago.

Authorities reported yesterday that Olive Jean Koempel confessed the crime shortly before she died Oct. 12 at the age of 80. The bones found at her home tended to verify her story.

ONCE A NURSE

Mrs. Koempel was supervising head nurse at Baltimore General Hospital in the early 1920s. In her confession to a friend, she said the victim was a hitchhiker she picked up while driving near Los Angeles in 1927.

Mrs. Koempel said she ordered the man from her car when he made improper advances — and then ran him down in anger. She said she took the body to her home, dismembered it, and buried it on her property.

Neighbors said Mrs. Koempel began a life of a recluse here. She lived in a shack, without water, lights or gas—and virtually covered her property with any type of junk she could find or steal.

Several years ago, she was cited by medical authorities for keeping 91 chickens, 13 dogs, 5 cats and 30 ducks on her premises.

When authorities descended on her property to check her story of murder, they found pathways leading through the junk, newspapers, old doors, chunks of corrugated iron, and dozens of wheeled supermarket carts which were jammed into the small house.

They found that 30 dogs and cats also shared her quarters.

Car With 4 Teeners Flips, Perils House

A carload of teen-agers plunged over a 50-foot embankment on Seaview Avenue in San Rafael last night, rolled end-over-end down the slope and plopped to a half within six inches of a house.

Three youths were treated for cuts and bruises at San Rafael General Hospital.

Police Officer Gerald R. Souza said the accident happened about 10:30 p.m. when a car driven by Sigfried K. Herzog Jr., 18, of 1440 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, failed to make a curve and went over the embankment at 35 West Seaview Avenue.

Flipping down the bank, the car bounced off an acacia tree and landed upright, crushing a small pear tree, a chaise lounge and a patio chair.

The four occupants crawled out through the smashed rear window. The car was wedged in the patio between the embankment and the house of Harold E. Schioldager.

Treated at San Rafael General Hospital were the driver, Herzog, for bruised chest, injured wrist and multiple cuts; George F. Powers, 18, of 28 Knoll Road, San Rafael, bruises and abrasions of the right shoulder and cuts of the right hand and William A. Kane, 18, of 6 Via Van Vuren, Terra Linda, bruises and abrasions of the left shoulder and a cut thumb. A fourth passenger, Arthur J. Omli, 18, of 49 Reservoir Road, San Rafael, was not injured.

Mrs. Schioldager, who was watching television in the family room next to the patio, said she saw the lights coming down the hill at the house.

"I thought it was an airplane," she exclaimed.

Apartment Fuss Suit Goes To Court

A full-scale jury trial opened today in Marin Municipal Court for a San Anselmo home owner accused of illegally converting his single-family home into a duplex.

Anthony Curro of Ross, who owns the home at 41 Austin Avenue, San Anselmo, is accused by the City of San Anselmo of violating the city zoning ordinance.

City councilmen decided to press the suit unless Curro removed all plumbing and kitchen facilities in the lower apartment. City Atty. John G. Buresh contends the area is restricted to one-family homes, whereas Curro's property is clearly set up for two housekeeping units.

Curro, a planning consultant for an insurance firm, is defended by Kenneth W. Larson of San Francisco. Jury picking began this morning before Judge Joseph G. Wilson.

REDWOOD AREA MEETING

Kuchel Aide Warns Of One-Party Drift

I-J Special Report

SANTA ROSA — The administrative assistant of Sen. Thomas Kuchel warned newsmen today of "the danger of a drift to one-party government."

M. S. (Pop) Small told the newspaper, radio and television units of the Redwood Empire Assn. at a breakfast meeting here that there is a growing tendency to reduce the number of the minority parties to the detriment of good government.

He pointed to the south as an example of the evils of one-party government. He said the southerners are "still fighting the Civil War," but at the same time southern legislators are "controlling our government."

As an example, he said Howard W. Smith of Virginia, chairman of the House rules committee, was able to block both the aid to education bill and the civil rights bill in the last session of Congress "because his cow was sick." He said that Smith had to go to his Virginia farm to tend to the cow just at the time the two bills could have been voted out of committee, and as a result Congress was unable to act on them.

Small, who is moving his main office from Washington to Sacramento to be Kuchel's representative throughout the state, said the divided government of the last six years, with the president of one party and the congress of another, "hasn't been such a bad thing."

"We were headed down a long road of inflation," he said, "but that has been checked." Business has slowed down slightly, he said, but that has been needed.

He denied that the present administration has failed to make new starts in public works, and pointed to a number of them inside the Redwood Empire, including the Bodega Bay project. He gave credit to Democratic leaders Sen. Lyndon Johnson and Rep. Sam Rayburn for cooperation with the Republican administration in the public works program.

He called it amazing for Senator Johnson now to say in the heat of the campaign that no new starts were made.

Small, returning to California for the first time in nearly eight years, said he was concerned to see that Gov. Edmund G. Brown had become violently partisan.

Senator Kuchel has cooperated with all 30 members of the California delegation in Congress, regardless of party, Small said.

There is a growing jealousy of California in Congress, he warned. This jealousy could result in holding up vital appropriations to the state, if it continues, Small claimed.

He urged the newsmen to be non-partisan in their appraisal of political candidates. He said they should look for quality in the individual, not be tied down to narrow partisanship.

The challenge of the newspapermen, he said, is to ask and to urge others to ask in this manner.

Qualifications he recommended for a candidate are: (1) integrity, (2) independence, (3) competence and dedication, and (4), which he called very important, toleration of the other fellow and guardianship of the rights of the minority.

William Duddelson, executive secretary to Rep. Clement W. Miller, told the newsmen in a brief talk that he could testify to the fact that in all dealings of Miller with the Kuchel office, there had been only one standard: "What is good for California and what is good for the first district?"

Sausalito Bank Exec Retiring This Month

Ivan Conn will retire as manager and assistant vice president of the Sausalito office of Wells Fargo Bank-American Trust Co. at the end of this month and be succeeded as manager by Clifford E. Christison, according to announcement by Ransom M. Cook, bank president.

Conn refers to his Sausalito work as "a three-month assignment that lasted 23 years." He went to the American Trust Co. there in January of 1937, the winter before the Golden Gate Bridge was opened, on what was to be a temporary job, and with his wife, Nina, "fell in love with Sausalito and Marin County."

They have lived at the same address, 14 Excelsior Lane, for 24 years, rearing a son and daughter and watching arrival of six grandchildren.

His association with the bank dates back to 47 years to April 1, 1913, when he joined what was then the First National Bank of Richmond as messenger boy.

In Sausalito he has been president of the Lions and Rotary clubs, longtime treasurer of the Salvation Army, and member of the American Legion, Elks and Masons.

A dinner at the Alta Mira Hotel will honor him next Wednesday. His plans, Conn says, include rest and later some travel.

Christison, with his wife Elizabeth, moved last week to 337 North Almenar Drive, Greenbrae, from San Carlos. He joined the bank in 1939, was made assistant manager at the Elmhurst office in Oakland in 1950 and assistant manager at the San Carlos office in 1958.

Bond Issue Mulled In Terra Linda

Terra Linda Recreation District directors have decided to ask the county counsel's help in taking the first step toward getting a bond issue before the voters.

Board Chairman Walter J. Fairweather said they asked the counsel to determine if the district had been legally formed so that it could sell bonds.

A recreation steering committee of the Terra Linda Community Services District has recommended a $220,000 bond issue.

The decision was made at a special meeting Wednesday in the Bernard Hoffman School. Earlier in the evening the board met with the directors of the services district to consider a joint exercise of powers agreement.

They will also consider, at that time, how much of the $5,000 services district recreation fund will be given to the recreation board.

Suit Alleges Dog Attack

A Fairfax father is seeking $100,000 damages for injuries suffered on his 7-year-old daughter when she was attacked by a dog last month.

Robert Wunner of 27 Vista Way is suing in Marin Superior Court for his daughter, Susan. The Wunners allege that Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bertini of 7 Vista Way owned a "vicious dog which was accustomed to bite mankind," and let it run at large.

According to the complaint, the Bertinis' dog attacked Susan about 6 p.m. on Sept. 5. Wunner claims his daughter suffered injuries about the head, face and throat. He seeks $100,000 damages plus medical and other costs.

Apartments, Boatel Planned At Greenwood

Two large developments in the Greenwood Lagoon area on Tiburon peninsula were announced today: One to include 285 apartments with boating facilities, the other to include a 93-unit boatel, a restaurant, gas station and some specialty shops.

Both developments, in an area zoned planned residential, will come before the Marin County Planning Commission Nov. 7 and 21 for plan approval.

Costs were not disclosed in either development.

Mrs. Mary Burrell of Belvedere, president of Reedlands, Inc., which developed the Reedlands, proposes the boatel, restaurant, gas station and specialty shops, to be built on eight acres east of the Westminster Presbyterian Church. She said if the plan was approved, construction would start within a year.

Mrs. Burrell said the boatels, designed by San Francisco architect Kenneth Krueger, are planned for people to stay for weekends or a season. Each is to have a balcony, a deck and a float for a boat.

Ernest Chamberlain of the Maritime Center in Tiburon will handle the marine service, providing marine supplies and leasing and chartering boats.

The apartments, to be built by Harry Hicks and Hugo Nadaner, co-owners of Associated Contractors, Palo Alto, are to be located in about 30 low buildings on the 20 acres adjoining Mrs. Burrell's development and reaching to the Marin Conservation League property. The builders plan an immediate start if the county planning commission gives the go-ahead.

Three-fourths of the apartments would be on the water, each apartment having its own terrace over the water and docking facilities. The rest would have access to the water via a dock.

Belvedere architect John Lord King and Elmore Hutchison, civil engineer, are working together on designing the apartments. One feature will be complete separation of the living areas from the automobile parking areas, King said. There will be a swimming pool for each court in the development.

King said there would be very little change made in the lagoon but that dredging would have to be done.

Pay Request In Novato Under Study

Negotiation of a high school teacher request for a 12 per cent salary increase in the Novato Unified School District will continue through committees, trustees decided Tuesday night.

Teachers at a special meeting with trustees on Oct. 18 had requested the raise—and an answer to the request by Dec. 15.

Trustees last night agreed to formation of a committee of board members, teachers and residents, much like a salary study committee which in May brought in a series of recommendations, including a 3 per cent raise for all of the district's teachers. The 12 per cent pay hike request came from all of the district's 44 high school teachers.

On the teacher side, a committee is being formed through the Novato Teachers Assn. to study salaries. The groups are expected to meet together in an attempt to come to an agreement.

DeMolay Chapter To Install Officers

The vote's in! And again for '61, Falcon is the people's choice !!

Right on the button for style. First choice for savings, too! And Falcon '61 comes with a trend-setting, 12,000-mile or 12-month warranty!

Popular as the Falcon was in 1960, the '61 Falcon promises even greater success against all the new candidates in the compact field!

Why? One reason is quality. The '61 Falcons have been built with such a high degree of quality, your Ford Dealer has led the industry by extending his warranty to 12,000 miles or one full year, whichever comes first.

And you'll find the '61 Falcon is stylish, too. It's big enough for six, and yet compact for easy handling. There's plenty of power, especially with the new optional 170 Special engine.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Cuisine Honoring United Nations Offered At Food Executives Affair

President Eisenhower designated last Monday night as a time to honor the cuisine of the United Nations. It was my good fortune to be invited through Gene Lackenbach to the monthly meeting of the Bay Area chapter of the Food Executives Assn. which coincided with that date, and sample an unusual menu being served throughout the country, including the White House.

The affair was held in the Hyatt House at the International Airport. This place itself is something to write about in the way of deluxe hostelries and I am sorry it isn't located in Marin.

The kitchen, without doubt, is one of the largest I have ever seen and had not catering manager David Salm been along to escort us through it from beginning to end I might still be there trying to find my way out.

I don't know how the chief executive of the land and his lady made out with the menu but if the courses were anything like those turned out by chef Hans Kolitsky I shouldn't be surprised to find a motion introduced in the Security Council to broaden U.N. powers beyond the provinces of state.

This was the order of the menu: A mixed salad from Indonesia, pea soup croutons souffle from the Netherlands, a fish souffle from Belgium with Danish tomatoes, veal paprika from Austria with creamed potatoes from Ecuador and string beans from Uruguay, Swedish rye bread and rye krisp, almond blanc manche garni from Switzerland and Brazilian coffee.

Alas, I am afraid it would only be vetoed by Russia.

There was no borsch.

FORTUNATELY for devotees of the outdoor enclosed patio at La Petite Auberge in San Rafael, the weather has held fair. Dining is pleasant. May I suggest lobster a la Francaise or brochette de filet marinated in Burgundy wine?

MONIE MULCAHY, organist at Sabella's will take to the "high Cs" with her playing on the President Cleveland when it sails for the Orient on Nov. 13.

The lady with the light touch on the keyboard who has racked up almost eight years at the 101 Highway seafood restaurant will perform aboard the Cleveland all during its six-week holiday cruise, returning just before Christmas.

GOOD NEWS for El Paseo Restaurant has come along in the form of recommendations by several of its customers to Gourmet Guide which is now seeking information from Mary and Earl Harkins preparatory to its listing.

These good people must have been inspired after tasting Earl's chicken cordon bleu with smitaine sauce made with cherries, cream and sherry wine, and Mary's pastries, salads and popovers that they could not refrain from passing on their tribute to the little spot.

It has always been a mystery to me how Mary's popovers keep rising to new heights of perpendicular inflation.

SOUNDS emanating from the Blue Rock Inn, Larkspur, at odd hours during the middle of the week may give rise to speculation that Herb Saman is working overtime at the rinky-tink piano.

If you take a quick look inside you may even be convinced Herb is hiding in a back room making like the "little man who wasn't there" by remote control.

But look again. The source of this increased plinking is a new addition—an old fashioned automatic piano moved in by Gil Freitas to supplement Herb's performance when he is off duty.

A HALLOWEEN PARTY will be given tomorrow night at the Colonel's Ranch Wagon. Costumes are in order and prizes will be awarded late in the evening. The Colonel now has parking attendants to handle cars on busy nights.

Bagley Asks 'No' On Proposition 15

William T. Bagley, Republican candidate for Assemblyman for Sonoma-Marin, today called for a "no" vote on Proposition 15 in the Nov. 8 election.

"A power grab by certain Los Angeles interests, bought onto the ballot at a cost of $200,000, Proposition 15 must be recognized for what it is and defeated," Bagley declared.

"As a practical example, the success of this proposition would reduce Marin County to one-half senator and increase Los Angeles County from one senator to seven senators."

Incentive Awards Given Employees

Three Marin County employees of the Presidio of San Francisco were presented incentive awards this week by Col. Richard E. Zeoli, post executive officer.

Everett W. Gilbert of 742 Francisco Boulevard, Bernard Mitchell of 11 Manor Court, San Rafael, and Jerry D. Pruett of Pacifica, all of the S4 maintenance division shared a $200 suggestion award.

MARIN FILM FARE

Music, Action Good At Rafael Offering

By LES DARD

RAFAEL THEATER

A couple of years ago, there was a rousing Japanese film playing in these parts entitled "The Seven Samurai." The story—transplanted to Mexico—has been lifted en toto.

The Hollywood version (Panavision, color) is now titled "The Magnificent Seven," and it opens Sunday on the San Rafael screen.

Plot deals with a Mexican village constantly terrorized by a bandit chief (Eli Wallach). To protect themselves, the people hire a group of gunmen to take care of Wallach.

The gunmen are: Yul Brynner, Charles Bronson, Steve McQueen, Horst Buchholz, Brad Dexter, James Coburn and Robert Vaughn. And the theory is that by doing good—even if it's for pay—these pistol-packing bums become better guys.

Buchholz, a star in Europe, makes his U.S. debut in this film and I can see where he could become another teen idol. Brynner is satisfactory as the star, making with a laconic expression throughout.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

For two years during World War II, a German merchant ship roamed the ocean raising havoc with Allied shipping. Flying whatever flag was convenient and carrying out its sham to the point of disguising crewmen as female passengers, it would advance on unsuspecting craft. Then, at the best moment, out would come the Swastika and the guns.

This rousing sea adventure, which involves the sinking of the raider, is titled "Under Ten Flags." It stars Charles Laughton as the shore-based admiral in charge of the trackdown, and Van Heflin as the Nazi captain of the Atlantic (that was the name of the disguised surface vessel).

The film opens Sunday on the Hub screen.

The main part of this hide-and-seek sea drama is in the hands of Heflin and Laughton, the former underplaying his role, the latter being an awesome but kindlier Captain Bligh.

MOTOR MOVIES

"The Mountain Road" which opens Sunday, is a drama starring Jimmy Stewart and a lovely Chinese, Lisa Lu.

Stewart plays Major Baldwin, a man on the ragged edge from long combat, who must wipe out everything in the path of advancing Japanese. Miss Lu portrays Sue-Mei, a cultured Chinese widow. The time is 1944, the setting is the Chinese mainland.

Estimate: East meets West.

SEQUOIA THEATER

"Dark at the Top of the Stairs," (Technicolor) which opens Sunday in Mill Valley, is a touching and amusing film translation of William Inge's Broadway success.

Robert Preston stars as the head of the Flood family, a harness salesman out of a job as tin lizzies begin to fill the roads. Dorothy McGuire portrays his wife. And the central fact of their life is their marital happiness. The physical break between these two is discussed openly and on an adult level.

Estimate: One to see; for adults.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

Story concerns the Hunnicutt family:

Robert Mitchum, shameless philanderer; Eleanor Parker whose coldness drives him into the arms of other women; George Hamilton, their sissified son, whom the father teaches to chase two-footed game (specifically Luana Patten); George Peppard, the mysterious chief hand on their ranch.

FAIRFAX THEATER

Once upon a time in a far off place called San Rafael, Calif., someone began bottling a wine which caused no end of fiscal trouble in a tiny land named the Duchy of Grand Fenwick.

Grand Fenwick's only export was a similar wine and now, impoverished by the competition, it decided to declare war on the United States. Its hope was for quick defeat—and lots of foreign aid.

This story, a charming and happy bit of satire, was written by Leonard Wibberley, a former editor of the Independent-Journal. It's titled "The Mouse That Roared" and offers comedian Peter Sellers in three roles.

LARK THEATER

"Carry On, Nurse" is a new British comedy which establishes, beyond a doubt, that the male animal cuts a pretty sad figure when bereft of his pants. It has been held over in Larkspur.

The men's ward of a hospital serves as the setting for this romp. There is no story as such. Rather, the audience follows the day and the night antics of the patients, a zany lot at best.

The crowd enjoyed this film the night I saw it.

NOVATO THEATER

"From the Terrace," in color-CinemaScope, is a truncated version of the John O'Hara best-seller. It stars Paul Newman and Joanne Woodward and opens Sunday.

Set in the post-war years, it tells of a young man (Newman) who returns home to find his mother (Myrna Loy) a hopeless drunk, his father a vicious bully. He marries a lovely but greedy girl (Woodworth).

She spurs him to fabulous success in Wall Street—and rewards him with spiteful infidelity.

He tumbles for another girl (Ina Balin), even though his wife threatens to bar this happiness. Then, in a final splurge of nobility, Newman cuts away the web that entangles his life and solves his dilemma.

Marin Demos Plan Huge Family Picnic

Rep. Clement W. Miller and candidates Charles M. Geller and Everett A. Matzen hope to meet personally with everyone at the picnic during the day. Congressman Miller is candidate for re-election. Geller and Matzen are running, respectively, for the California State Senate and Assembly.

Besides "politickin'" there will be a chicken dinner, square and round dancing, swimming, baseball and a variety of sit-down games. There will also be horseshoe pitching and a children's Halloween costume contest.

If the weather is not sunny the whole party can move inside the big barn on the property. Children under 8 will be admitted free.

Incorporation Sought By Securities Company

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan announced Joaquin Valley Invesment Co., a San Francisco County stock and securities company, has filed articles of incorporation with his office, to be capitalized at $2,500,000 in $1 par shares.

Directors of the company were listed as Jean Ross, 7 Sequoia Drive, San Anselmo, Lorraine Peiffer, San Francisco, and Bette L. Monte, 115 Spring Grove Avenue, San Rafael.

Ross Players' 'Mame' Is Simply Terrific

By DOROTHY SLATTERY

The Ross Valley Players have a hit on their hands.

Their production of "Auntie Mame," possibly one of the funniest plays to grace the American theater, comes across the footlights loaded with power, magic and an excellent craftsmanship fused by the deft hand of director John Brebner.

The production opened last week at the Barn of the Marin Art and Garden Center, and will run again tonight and Saturday and Nov. 3-5 at 8:30 p.m.

Marie Rogers shines in her role as the madcap, marvelously Bohemian Mame. She has the walk, wears eccentric, high-style fashion and has the aristocratic face and arched eyebrows for the part. And she can swear with a verve and still sound like a lady.

The production, along with being a marvelous piece of theater, requires a number of extravagant sets and costumes. (Mame changed interior decorators the way most women do winter coats.)

Set designer Melinda Day came through with flying colors and by cleverly using space and a wide assortment of authentic props came up with a perfect background for a woman who liked to quip, "Life is a banquet while most (ahem . . .) starve to death."

The play opens in the 1920's when the socially prominent liberal Mame Dennis suddenly inherits custody of her school-age nephew, Patrick, the son of a stuffy, pompous-tycoon.

Dave Holiday, as Beauregard Jackson Pickett Burnside, the "fine southern gentleman" who rescues Mame from the deprivation of the depression, gave an outstanding performance from the moment he sidled onto stage and found Mame behind the toy department counter at Macy's.

Percy McPartland gave a superb performance as Upson, a climbing status seeker who almost became Patrick's father-in-law, and Dorothy Schuster as Gloria Upson, the almost-bride, deserves credit for her soliloquy on a ping-pong ball.

But one of the brightest performers of the evening and one who deserves a locker room full of plaudits is Dora Blunden as the Broadway actress Vera Charles. This performer's sense of timing is terrific and she has the ability to slam home a sarcastic remark with the sting of a wasp.

Bobbie Dowd was good as the sloppy sweater clad Agnes Gooch. The child Patrick Dennis was done in a wide-eyed way by young Rickey Citti. The schoolboy Pat was portrayed by Andy Irving, and Jay Irving took over as the young man.

The show had a scene stealing moppet in the form of Duncan Holaday, who played an earthy younger brother of Mame's rival for Burnside's affection.

If you don't want to miss some terrific theater, don't miss "Mame."

Questionnaire On Lunches Mailed Out

Larkspur School District parents have been mailed a questionnaire designed to determine their wishes regarding a school lunch program.

The questionnaire, approved Tuesday night by the board of trustees, asks the parents if they are willing to pay 40 cents per lunch, how regularly their children will eat in the cafeteria, whether they prefer frozen or kitchen-prepared lunches, and how many children in the family can be expected to eat each day.

Since the beginning of the current school year no lunches have been served in the district's schools. Last year frozen lunches were served daily in the Henry C. Hall school and three times a week in the Neil Cummins and Larkspur-Corte Madera schools.

Mervin Gootherts, principal of Hall School, told the board last night it would cost $2,142 to equip the school cafeteria to serve kitchen-cooked meals. Of this amount, $1,060 would be paid by the state, Gootherts said.

Cuba Reported Heavily Armed

HAVANA (UPI) — Mounting shipments of arms from behind the Iron Curtain have made Cuba one of the most heavily armed nations of its size in the world, it was reported today.

Reliable informants said arms received from the Reds include tanks and artillery — and probably jet planes —from Russia, 100,000 Czech rifles and large quantities of machine guns.

The coastline of Pinar Del Rio Province, West of Havana, bristles with naval gun emplacements. The former American mining area at Moa Bay in eastern Cuba has been closed to civilians and apparently is being converted into a major military base.

The government has ordered a tight military alert to support its charge that a U.S.-supported invasion can be expected momentarily. Precautions in force include sporadic blackouts of coastal highways around Havana.

Premier Fidel Castro has not appeared publicly here for nearly two weeks, and his whereabouts are unknown.

Castro's brother Raul, Cuba's armed forces minister, has been out of sight even longer than the premiere. Reports circulating here said he has established headquarters at San Luis, near Moa Bay, where Russian and Czech technicians are schooling him in military stategy and tactics.

NOT A HINT OF LINT ON HAMILTON RUNWAYS

If the little woman is hinting for a new vacuum cleaner for Christmas, take a cue from Hamilton Air Force Base.

The base is the proud owner of an eight-ton, 30-foot long, 11-foot high, 8-foot wide vacuum cleaner.

It snuffles along the base's jet runways, sucking up odd bolts, gravel, bottles, bricks and debris to prevent damage to jet engines which might inhale them. It can clean a million square feet an hour.

There's a drawback, though. Air Force officials admit it must make additional passes to suck up those nasty particles of fine sand, which are the bane of every housewife.

Fractions Count In Rifle Shoot

Young Charlie won the recent 20th annual Cataloochie rifle shoot by putting three shots into a circle the size of a silver dollar from 60 yards away.

The youngster learned well. His father was runnerup, his worst shot being an eighth of an inch away from his son's.

Fairfax Hearing Due On Zoning Ordinance

A public hearing will be held Nov. 21 on Fairfax's proposed 50-page new zoning ordinance, it was decided at a meeting of the Fairfax Planning Commission last night.

Copies of the ordinance were provided by the city clerk. It culminates five years of work by the city planner and is designed to rezone most of Fairfax, changing the present residential and commercial areas into six divisions.

Capt. Daniel M. Miller of 245 Marinda Drive, Fairfax was elected new chairman of the commission, replacing Stanley Wilsey, who has been appointed to the Fairfax City Council.

A second vacancy on the nine-member commission was created through receipt of a letter of resignation from Everett J. Jensen. The commission unanimously agreed to send a letter of commendation to Jensen.

Permission was granted J. B. Williams of 45 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael, to build two duplexes on the old railroad right of way opposite St. Rita's Church and for Lloyd D. Lenhard of 34 Arroyo Road to remodel his home into a duplex.

As the next regular meeting date falls on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 24, the commission set its next Tuesday for Nov. 17.

From the founding of Arkansas until 1872, Arkansas governors were inaugurated the same year they were elected.

Flowering Tree Collector's Item

STERLING, Colo. (AP)— Chief custodian Willis Benz is worried about the Xanthoceras sorbifolia Bunge on the courthouse square.

Word got around that it is the only one of its kind in Colorado, and souvenir hunters have been stripping its lower extremities. In event you don't know, Xanthoceras sorbifolia Bunge is a rare flowering tree.

Give Them Time

NEW YORK (UPI)—Don't expect too much of a new parakeet. The birds are sensitive to their surroundings and it usually takes them a few days to adjust.

Until they do, they probably will act timid and drowsy.

Bolinas Harbor Unit Will Hire Financial Aides

The Bolinas Harbor District board last night voted to retain Stone and Youngberg, San Francisco financial consultants, to do preliminary financial work on the district's development of a small craft harbor in Bolinas Lagoon.

District president Gene McDaniel said no time limit was set for the work. The contract calls for total payment of $2,500.

It was announced that McDaniel and Lee Sefton will run for the two vacancies on the board. Incumbent McDaniel resides at Bolinas. Sefton, an attorney who lives at Stinson Beach, will run for the post now held by Fred Thompson of Stinson Beach, who is not seeking another term. Thompson, one of the original commissioners, has served five years on the board.

The county clerk's office said today that there will be a separate ballot in the Nov. 8 election to carry the names of McDaniel and Sefton. Normally, when there is no opposition, appointment is automatic but the harbor district comes under a special voting provision. The term is for four years.

Gate Span Aide Is Authorized

Creation of a new position of "administrative assistant" was authorized today by directors of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District.

Duties of the assistant are to be defined later by the board.

The proposal for creation of this job, its pay and duties not specified, was put before the directors by general manager James Adam who said it was required "for the proper conduct of the district." Approval was promptly voted.

The board was advised of the death from a heart attack this morning of Maurice Moskovitz, director from San Francisco since November of 1950. It adjourned as a mark of respect.

Benefit Party

A benefit party for the Twin Cities Boys Club will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the Larkspur American Legion Hall.

Electrical Inspector Hearing Ends

A two-day hearing for county electrical inspector Harry Grieb, who was laid off because of job cutbacks, wound up last night before the County Personnel Commission.

Commission Chairman Julius Selinger said the case will be taken under submission and a recommendation turned in to the County Board of Supervisors as soon as possible.

Grieb has worked as building inspector (specializing in electrical) for 14 years. County Public Works Director Marvin W. Brigham says only three county building inspectors are now needed because Novato incorporated. The three would handle electrical, plumbing, and structural. Since there is another electrical inspector with more seniority on the staff, Grieb was dismissed.

Grieb, represented by attorney Roderick P. Martinelli, contends that he could work as structural inspector. Brigham testified that Grieb is qualified in electrical work but not in structural. The county already has one structural inspector.

Brigham said he would have to release one plumbing inspector too, because there are two in that category.

Garety Says Police Don't Lack Incentive

Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety, who spoke to the council of mayors Wednesday, explained today the made no statement on "lack of incentive among police officers."

A news story in Wednesday's paper made it sound as if he were critical of police officers, which is not the case, Garety said.

To get and keep officers of high caliber in police work, there must be some incentive, Garety said. In certain areas, scholarships are made available to encourage officers to continue specialized training. Promotions should be based on ability, and not entirely on length of service, he contended.

"Hoodlums, gamblers, suede shoe operators and people of that ilk are ready to descend on us if there is apathy and weakness in law enforcement," Garety said.

property taxpayers and the legislature. The most equitable financing for them, he said, would be an aviation gas tax, but the big airlines are fighting such a proposal.

The proposed realignment of the Shoreline Highway from Highway 101 to Stinson Beach came in for a great deal of discussion today.

Joseph Sinclair, assistant state highway engineer, said "since no agency is willing to support it, it is being held in inactive status. Until we can get some support, we're going to work somewhere else."

T. Fred Bagshaw of Mill Valley, assistant director of the Department of Public Works, said the project will not be abandoned, but pressure against continuing it is coming in from "all over the world." He said he'd had letters from England, France and many other parts of the world, arguing in general against destroying the beauties of the coast of Marin and Mount Tamalpais, and "we didn't have much support."

Chairman Walter R. Castro of the Marin Board of Supervisors insisted his board had been urging the project, and Supervisor James Marshall said he was expecting a proposal for making the road into a parkway.

Sinclair answered that "our study is compatible with a scenic highway. What we propose is just what you ask for."

The supervisors unit of the REA was expected to take up the proposal this afternoon.

Sinclair also reviewed construction projects planned and under way in the Marin and Redwood Empire area. Arthur Hayler, district highway engineer, reported on the proposed landscaping of the Vista Point. In response to a question by Richard L. Shirley, manager of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, he said an information center could be added.

OBITUARIES

Former City Postmaster Succumbs

Marion Welton, a lifelong resident of Marin County and former postmaster of San Rafael, died Wednesday at her home, 710 Belle Avenue, San Rafael. She had been ill for some time.

Coroner Frank Keaton said she apparently died in her sleep of natural causes, but an autopsy was to be performed today. She was found in bed by a friend, Miss Alice Johnson of 79 Woodland Avenue.

Mrs. Welton was named postmaster on the death of her husband, James. She was a nursing graduate of the former College Hospital, now San Rafael General, and was office nurse for Dr. Charles Marston of San Rafael for 17 years.

Mrs. Welton (then Mrs. Day) became acting postmaster in July, 1939, succeeding her second husband, Tom Day, on his death. She served until April, 1940, when she was succeeded by Charles Hilary Hayden.

She later married James F. Welton, a telephone company executive, who died about six years ago. She was the widow of George Kauffman when she married Day.

Mrs. Welton was born in Novato and was graduated from San Rafael High School.

She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Virginia N. Brusher of Oakland; a brother, Joseph Gambetta of Vallejo, and a grandson, George Robert Kaufman, in the Navy.

She was a charter member of the Young Ladies Institute, Lagan Institute, Catholic Daughters of America and St. Raphael's Ladies Aid Society.

A Solemn Requiem High Mass will be sung at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at St. Raphael's Church, San Rafael. The cortege will form at 9:15 a.m. at Keaton's Mortuary. Interment will be in Mt. Olivet Cemetery.

The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. today at the Keaton Chapel.

Woodrow W. Popp, San Rafael, Dies

The body of Woodrow Wilson Popp, 47, was found in his apartment at 908 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, yesterday.

Mrs. Marjorie M. Norman, the landlady, discovered Popp unconscious or lifeless about 1:15 p.m. She called county welfare workers, who summoned a doctor from the county medical office. The doctor pronounced Popp dead.

The body was taken to Keaton's Mortuary, where certification of cause of death awaited pathological tests. There was no indication of other than natural causes.

Coroner Frank J. Keaton said Popp had been a private in the field artillery in World War II. Since the war he had worked as a maintenance man and laborer.

He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Betty Mulligan of Helm, Fresno County.

Clara E. Wallace, Belvedere, Dies

Mrs. Clara E. Wallace of Belvedere died yesterday at a San Francisco sanatorium after a short illness. She was 74.

She had lived in Belvedere for the past 10 years, making her home at 7-E Beach Road.

A native of Rochester, Pa., Mrs. Wallace came to California about 30 years ago, living in Alhambra before moving to the Bay Area. She was a member of the First Church of Christ Scientist in Belvedere.

Surviving her are two sons, Joseph B. Wallace of Belvedere and Howard Wallace of Cleveland; a sister, Mrs. Dorothy Wojanis of Huntington Park, and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at Russell and Gooch Mortuary in Mill Valley at 2 p.m. Monday. Inurnment will be at Cypress Lawn, Colma.

George Oliver Jr. Rites Tomorrow

Funeral services will be held tomorrow for George D. (Jack) Oliver Jr., who died in his Greenbrae home Wednesday.

The coroner's office reported that the 58-year-old sales manager for the U.S. Wood Products Co. of San Francisco died of a heart attack.

Services will be held at 11:30 a.m. in Keaton's Mortuary, Fifth and E Streets, San Rafael. Inurnment will be private.

A native of Hobart Mills, California, Oliver moved to Marin County four years ago. He lived at 290 Vista Grande in Greenbrae.

Survivors are his wife, Shirley, a son Robert D. Oliver, a daughter, Arleigh Johnson; two brothers, T. K. Oliver of Medford, Ore., and C. M. Oliver of Carson City, Nev., and three grandchildren.

BUS DEPOT SUGGESTED FOR SAUSALITO

A citizens committee headed by Mrs. W. H. Washbourne is seeking a bus depot for Sausalito to be located at Bridgeway near Bay Street. This tentative drawing of a proposed station suggests a round depot, 15 feet in diameter, with space for a ticket agent and a small news and vendor shop, to cost about $2,000. Sketch is by Sausalito architect Charles E. Finney. The kiosk could be expanded to accommodate a taxi station, with taxis parking in the rear.

Auto Jumps Curb, Kills Five At Busy Chicago Crosswalk

CHICAGO (AP)—A car driven by a woman who said she blacked out jumped a sidewalk and ripped through a crowd of pedestrians last night, killing five and hurling their bodies across a busy downtown intersection.

Three persons, including the driver, were injured.

Dead and injured were thrown 25 feet as the car scooped up pedestrians and careened across the intersection at Randolph and Franklin Streets, at the west edge of the Loop.

One of the fatally injured pedestrians was sprayed with boiling tar when the careening car struck a two-wheeled heating cart towed by a roofing firm truck.

The car, carrying some victims on its hood, then struck another car and both veered side by side out of control.

One body was found jammed beneath the second car which finally smashed to a halt.

Tour Operators Ask For Places To Sleep

I-J Special Report

SANTA ROSA — Tour bus operators told businessmen of the Redwood Empire yesterday that they need more and better sleeping accommodations and restaurants if they want to attract more tourists.

C. D. Kirkpatrick, vice president of Pacific Greyhound Lines, and James Mulpeters of Gray Line, Inc., told the wayside enterprises unit of the Redwood Empire Assn., that local businessmen should "take better care" of the tourists after they arrive.

Kirkpatrick pointed out that most of Greyhound's tours through the area originated in San Francisco or Los Angeles and are headed for the Pacific Northwest, or originate in Seattle and swing through the redwoods on their way to the southern Utah parks.

"We're not able to include an overnight stop in the redwoods because there isn't any place to stay," he said. "People don't want to sleep in a city; they'd like to be out in the redwoods, if that is what they came to see."

It is the same as to restaurants, he went on. Tourists would like to eat among the trees, to be able to walk out and touch a few of them. But such facilities aren't available for a bus load of people at a time, he claimed.

Another problem is coordination of tours with the facilities that are available, he declared. The hotel operators and the tour operators just aren't getting together to make use of accommodations.

Mulpeters said his company does not have many tours that go into the Redwood Empire because Gray Lines mostly concentrates on one-day tours. The firm operates tours to Muir Woods in Marin County. Other redwood groves are too far away for a one-day trip, he said.

Don Emerson, REA president and himself a hotel operator in Lake County, presided over the session. He called upon restaurant and hotel operators to expand and improve the facilities along the Redwood Highway.

The REA's small boat harbor committee heard Lachlan M. Richards, chief of the State Division of Small Craft Harbors, review the status of the seven small boat harbor projects planned in the area.

He said Marin's two projects, the dredging of the Richardson Bay channel for the County of Marin, and the construction of a small boat harbor by the City of Mill Valley, are awaiting a land appraisal of the area.

The two projects are tied together, he noted, with the Mill Valley project not possible unless the county project is also completed.

Feasibility studies for both projects are under way but are being held up pending the land appraisal, he said. Each is a $300,000 project.

The aviation unit of the association passed two resolutions yesterday, aimed at making an airport program self-sustaining through an aviation gasoline tax. Both went to the supervisors unit today for consideration.

One resolution called on the legislature to enact a law setting up the aviation fuel tax to "provide financing for the orderly development of a system of airports in cooperation with local political subdivisions" on a basis similar to the automobile gas tax.

The second called upon the California Supervisors Assn. to direct its staff to assist the governor and the legislature in passing such a proposal.

Dear Doctor:

Please accept my thanks for the very friendly reception extended to me last week by you and the other members of the Society who are participating in the letter campaign on behalf of Mr. Bagley.

The cooperation of you and your colleagues is, of course, the real key to the success of the campaign and we want you to know that your help is genuinely appreciated.

Confirming the program which was outlined, the following suggestions are made:

1. Addressing of envelopes to patients living in the 7th Assembly District (Marin-Sonoma) should begin promptly. These may include current and current-inactive listings. A No. 10 envelope is suggested.
2. Because this is extra work, the Physicians' Committee will pay five cents for each envelope addressed. The Committee will also provide the cost of postage.
3. Nothing is to be done by your office on the letter - only be sure to have enough of your blank letterheads available to be picked up along with the addressed envelopes.
4. The envelopes and corresponding number of blank letterheads should be ready to be picked up on October 24th or 25th. Your personnel will be reimbursed at that time.
5. At that time, also, we will need two copies of the signature that will be printed on the letter. Please sign these on your office stationery in red or black ink so that they may be properly reproduced and readily identified.

Should you or your personnel have any questions, please call Doctor Cedric Johnson at II 6-3816, or the Public Health League office in San Francisco at GRaystone 4-1061, and I will contact you.

Again, many thanks for your help in this important undertaking.

Cordially,
John H. Fraser
Asst. Executive Secretary

Released Felons Should Get Vote, But Not Automatically

Living in a community which contains a major penal institution, we realize the great efforts made at rehabilitation of lawbreakers in California.

We can understand the concern and the interest of the sponsors of Proposition 8 on the November ballot in proposing that all felons, except those convicted of treason or misappropriating public funds, be able to lead a normal life after being rehabilitated. One facet of leading a normal life is the right to vote.

Proposition 8 would automatically give to persons who have served their sentences, including probation or parole, the right to vote. At present they can not regain their voting privilege unless pardoned by the governor or by going through a complicated citizenship restoration procedure set up in the Penal Code.

We'd like to see worthy, rehabilitated lawbreakers have their voting rights returned. But we don't believe it should be automatic. Completion of a sentence does not mean rehabilitation, as the huge percentage of criminals returned to prison proves.

Yet there should be some practical way in which a man could regain his right to vote.

As we said, we do not think that automatic return of this privilege is the proper method and thus urge a No vote on Proposition 8. We hope the proposition is defeated and then the legislature comes up with a fair way in which a rehabilitated man can acquire his voting privilege again.

PROPOSITION 10 puts us in a quandary. It is a complicated multi-purpose piece of legislation dealing with that most obstuse of all governmental processes, the administration of justice.

It would create a reasonable method of removing or retiring judges for willful misconduct in office, failure to perform his duties, or habitual intemperance. Some such method has long been needed.

It also increases the size of the Judicial Council, sets up a Commission on Judicial Qualifications, provides that the State Bar of California be made a public corporation with perpetual existence and requires the membership of all lawyers in the state.

Unfortunately, the proposition also provides that the Commission on Judicial Qualifications, which hears the charges brought to remove or retire a judge meets in secret. Not until the commission passes the charges along to the Supreme Court for final decision is the public allowed to know what is transpiring.

This smacks too much of Star Chamber proceedings. We believe the public has the right to know what charges are brought against an elected official, regardless of the decision of the commission.

We would hate to oppose a proposition which sets up a needed procedure for removal of unfit judges. Yet we can not support a proposition which puts into our constitution secret meetings such as this.

On Proposition 10, we have no recommendation.

Bird Signs Of Autumn

Autumn is here and Nature proclaims the fact in numerous ways. Among the signs of the changing seasons are the habits of the birds.

In the Spring and Summer, while the birds are mating and nesting, they lead a rather solitary family life. But in the Autumn and Winter, birds like the bush tits and sparrows flock together in a gregarious social life. Families of quail are an exception to this rule because the parents join together during the summer in order to do better sentry duty on their chicks.

Already the bush tits are traveling around in excitable, peeping, fluttering flocks of plump, tiny fellows. The dignified cedar waxwings arrived in Marin over a month ago in bunches and are now adorning berry bushes and hawthorns.

Flowers are not as numerous as they were in midsummer and the hummingbirds are taking increased interest in sapsucker borings.

There are other signs too, including the migrations of waterfowl.

Just as our human habits are altered by changes of season, so too are bird habits.

Yearning To Learn How To Live? Household Pets Can Help You

NEW YORK (AP) — If you want to learn how to live, get yourself a cat.

When you first get a new pet of any kind, you usually have a complacent feeling that you can teach it a thing or two.

Sometime later, you find to your surprise, you are the one being taught. Your pet teaches you more than you teach it.

Everyone in our family—my wife, Frances; my 7-year-old daughter, Tracy Ann, and myself — has learned something from her.

What can a mere cat teach a human being?

First of all she can teach the value of a life of dignity without self-pity.

Lady Dottie, like all cats, is a four-footed island of self-respect. She may compromise, but she never surrenders. She allows no outsider to violate her dignity, and she never violates it herself by feeling sorry for herself.

She yearns for no expensive toys. A box from the department store will keep her happy for two full days.

Watching her play one day, I observed aloud:

"You know, I really envy Lady Dottie."

"Oh, don't feel that way about it, Rover," said my wife. "If you want a paper box, I can get you one, too."

By nature, Lady Dottie was probably meant to roam the woodland as a wild thing. She is now a kind of a prisoner in an apartment.

For about 15 minutes each morning she likes to go out in the hallway. Then she comes back and paws at the door to be let back in.

She has seen enough of the strange outside world. She is happy to return.

Besides demonstrating the art of making the best out of what life presents, Lady Dottie also teaches another important thing — the virtue of living in the present.

SHE NEVER PINES over the sorrows of the past, or broods over the terrors of the future. She lives intensely in each moment.

When awake she is alive to the majesty inherent in every instant. She sleeps as if she had eternity at her disposal.

Sanitary District Item Not Right

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

You recently published a story about the Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District, which has just come to my attention. In this story you state there have been complaints that "The Marin Sanitary Service is making a disproportionate profit," and that I "won election to the board on a platform promising to obtain a bigger (franchise) percentage" for the district.

These statements are not accurate. In the first place, no one I know of has charged the service with exacting an exorbitant profit. Secondly, I did not promise to obtain either a "bigger percentage" or more money for the district from the service, and neither did any other candidate in the recent board election.

I did raise the question as to whether the sanitary board has fulfilled all its responsibilities to the residents of the district and to the Marin Sanitary Service in the board's management of the 10-year exclusive franchise contract between the service and the district. I raised this question because there have been entirely too many misunderstandings about the service's rates and about the financial relationship between the Marin Sanitary Service and the sanitary district. These misunderstandings are contributing to the serious illegal dumping problem in our district.

After my election, on Oct. 13, I proposed that the board cause a limited audit of the service, as a preliminary step to clarifying the applicable district ordinances and simplifying the accounting between the district and the service. The service has repeatedly stated it would welcome an audit for any purpose. I felt that an audit of the first three months of the district's current fiscal year was called for so that any steps the board and the service might jointly take to clear up the misunderstandings which have arisen will be based upon unimpeachable facts.

Regrettably, it is difficult to raise legitimate questions about the management of a contract (financial and otherwise) without such questions being construed by some as allegations of dishonesty and corruption, and I felt that in fairness to the service and to the board a limited audit was essential to clearing the air.

The board has now decided by a vote of 3 to 2 against an audit, because of its expense. I want to emphasize that the amount of money involved in the payments to the district by the service is small. This fact was quite naturally persuasive to the majority of the board and would have been equally determinative with me had I regarded the recovery of moneys for the district as the only consideration.

I sincerely hope that the board's decision that no audit is reasonably necessary will end all questions about the good faith of the Marin Sanitary Service.

I feel sure that the board will do everything else it can to clear up the misunderstandings which have arisen and to avoid such misunderstandings in the future, and I know that the service will continue to co-operate with the board to this end.

I am confident that the board will also take some reasonable measures in the near future to mitigate our illegal dumping problem.

Property Tax Going Too High

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In response to Walter Seavey's (School Tax For New Houses?) letter printed Oct. 20, I fail to see where he has made his point. In fact, if you were to follow his logic, it would suggest that a "school tax" be levied at the maternity ward of every hospital. This, too, of course, is ridiculous.

If we accept the definition that taxation is a means by which to collect funds to meet the general needs of a complex society and the theory of taxation is to spread to those both served and capable of paying, it should be obvious that real estate is upholding a staggering burden.

I think the school board is in earnest in their bid to seek additional funds. I think they underestimate the intelligence of the voters, however, in attempting to hold a separate election. Such a waste of the taxpayers' funds deserves little support.

Now I admit that as long as the attitude prevails in this county that we should give lip service to industry locating here, but in fact render no cooperation and create superfluous obstacles to these interests, we must be willing to pay the resultant costs to keep them out. Industry creates a tax base to ease the pressure on residential areas.

Another source of revenue to our county tax collector is the tourist business. It's rather technical to explain in this short letter, but when you see the results of what 15 tourists a day can spend in a community, it can be compared on an equal footing with an industry having a $100,000 annual payroll.

Additional costs placed on new construction is merely passed on to the eventual owner. When my children do get through school, I want them to be able to buy their own home. This would be impossible if we stand by and let costs and prices skyrocket.

Apology, Correction On Reader's Letter

Inadvertent and inexplicable insertion of a "not" in a letter Monday by Robert Kitchak of Novato, changed the meaning of the first sentence in his closing paragraph.

Reader Kitchak's original letter said "I do think it is wrong to try to cover up or hide this information," referring to criticism of official U.S. action. His printed letter erroneously reversed this opinion indicating he does "not" think it is wrong.

Kids Liked Typing, Teachers, Or Nothing In Reed Summer School

With the Reed Union School District trustees scheduled to begin discussions soon of the 1961 summer school program, district taxpayers who are interested in this program should avail themselves of the comprehensive evaluation and recommendation report made after this year's program.

A questionnaire was sent to the parents of the children attending and another given to the children. Recommendations for improvement were requested. It is the answers received from the children that we feel will brighten your evening's reading.

IN ANSWER to the question "What do you like best about summer school?" 44 replied "typing"; 5 "nothing"; 2 "teachers." Among miscellaneous answers were "getting out," "everything" and "kids."

When asked "What do you like least about summer school?", 14 replied "nothing"; 11, "getting up so early"; 5, "teacher"; and the miscellaneous answers ranged from "walking to bus," "children" to "social studies."

Typing was suggested by 30 as being what they would like to have in summer school next year, along with one suggestion of "cuter teachers." Also suggested were "harder work," "all play," "ice skating," "studies of the heart" (whether scientific or not was not specified), and "short recess."

HONEST ANSWERS to the question "Why did you go to summer school this year?" were "mother made me" by 18 students; "so I won't have to plant bushes," "I needed it," "meet new friends." 21 answered "to learn" and 19 with "typing."

The most interesting answers were in reply to the question "What did you learn in the past four weeks that you did not know before?"

They are "that other children don't know fractions," "a lot," "never to go again," "clay," "different things." 46 answered "typing" and 16 with "nothing."

PARENTAL ANSWERS to the question "what did you like about summer school" were revealing, too.

Eight answered "kept children occupied" and seven said "summer vacation is too long," while six admitted "kept children busy." Under suggested changes, recommendations were "include kindergarteners," "no radio or comic books," "eliminate recreation," "longer day" and a four-hour day beginning at 8:30 a.m.

Some of the recommendations which trustees will consider for next year's program are: having a "gifted child" class of 10-15 children that have been previously screened by the school psychologist and teachers so that a "special deluxe" program could be offered; keep remedial classes to 15 or less; budget funds for arts and crafts materials and recreational equipment for at least 300 children.

THE DISTRICT'S staff opinion is that the providing of bus service to students at the summer school was one of the factors in the over 300-student enrollment. They also recommended that trustees study the request for a foreign language program for seventh and eighth graders.

For those of you who are interested in this program, be sure and get to trustee meetings when the subject is discussed. Criticism is welcomed by the board when they can do somethng about it . . . not after they have made their decisions.

Trustee meetings are held the second and fourth Tuesday evenings monthly, usually in the Reed School multipurpose room and always promptly at 8 p.m. Let's see some new faces other than teachers and your reporter at the meetings.

Why Are Candidates So Far Apart On Matter Of Prestige?

WASHINGTON — Neither presidential candidate is helping us very much to decide the question: Is U. S. prestige around the world high or low, good or bad, rising or falling?

Judging the level of national prestige is about as scientific as guessing the number of beans in a bag or predicting how many mice will be in orbit next year.

So far Richard Nixon and Jack Kennedy have been offering extremely partisan, all-right and all-wrong conclusions which bear little relationship to reality: Nixon that "prestige" is at an all-time high and rising, Kennedy that it is perilously low and falling.

We are left with the impression that they are talking about two different things and two different worlds.

HOW CAN TWO such intelligent individuals be so far apart? Is this just the vice of "campaign oratory," or is there a better explanation of how they can be so far apart?

If you are confused about the status of U. S. prestige because Kennedy and Nixon are so far apart on it, don't be worried. You're normal. There are good reasons for this confusion:

1—National prestige cannot be measured by statisticians or statistics. The economists can measure the economic GNP (gross national product—total value of goods and services). But statesmen have no trustworthy means of measuring the diplomatic GNP (gross national prestige —total value of influence and esteem). It is a commodity easy to talk about, hard to assess.

2—Is there a fixed volume of prestige in the world? Thus if one country gains some prestige, must another country or group of countries lose prestige? I doubt it, although some of the political debate makes it look that way.

AFTER DEVASTATION of World War II, which left the United States economically unimpaired, many countries have achieved great economic recovery and advancement.

Russia and Red China are far stronger today than in 1945. So are Britain, Germany, France, all of Western Europe and Japan. They have moved up faster economically than the U. S. because they were down so much lower.

Because America's principal allies are vastly better off today and are able to share more in aiding the developing countries, it does not follow that U. S. prestige is lower.

3—There is another important factor in this equation of gross national prestige. Nixon leaves the impression that everything that has gone well in the world is a U. S. government success. Kennedy leaves the impression that everything that has gone badly in the world is a U. S. government failure. Neither is true.

Much that goes on in the world has little or no relationship to anything the U. S. does or fails to do.

IT CAN BE WELL argued, I think, that in being asked to cast our votes on the basis of rising or declining national prestige, we are being confronted with the wrong standard.

National prestige is very closely related to national popularity and this cold war is not a popularity contest. The U. S. may lose popularity and prestige by doing the wrong thing.

Isn't it more important that U. S. policy should be inner-directed than outer-directed and that our first objective is being true to ourselves, true to our highest sense of right? Then prestige will be added unto us.

MODEL LEGISLATURE

Marin Has Chance To Put Boy Governor In Capitol

Marin County may have a boy governor in Sacramento next February at the YMCA's 13th annual Model Legislature, if 17-year-old Terry Wade, Redwood High School senior, wins an election this weekend.

Terry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wade, 17 Bretano Way, Greenbrae, will be Marin YMCA's candidate for governor, running against three other teen-age gubernatorial hopefuls from other parts of the state.

Candidates for this and five other legislative offices will be voted upon at an election tomorrow on the Stanford University campus, where 500 teen-agers from 35 Northern California YMCAs will gather for the first of several pre-legislative training conferences, leading up to their full-dress experience as lawmakers in the state capitol in February.

About 40 teen-agers from Marin YMCA will accompany Terry to Stanford and campaign for his election. They will also receive advice from adult experts on how to go about developing legislation which they must write for the citizen training event.

Each candidate for boy governor will deliver a speech. Terry's will be on "Proposed Changes in the Educational Curriculum." In preparing his material, he has received help from two experts: State Senator John F. McCarthy, and Chapin A. Day, Independent-Journal editor and political writer.

It is estimated that the U.S. Merchant Marine contributes more than $5 billion a year to the nation's economy.

Play Equipment Purchase Urged

The Corte Madera Parks and Recreation Commission Wednesday night decided to recommend to the Town Council acquisition of playground equipment for a proposed school site in Mariners Cove. The Larkspur School District is expected to acquire the site.

The commission also recommended that excess fill left over from filling in the two southern areas of the town park be used for the baseball field area.

The commissioners had their first look at a planting plan for the southern areas of the park, submitted by landscape architects Royston, Hanamoto and Mayes of San Francisco.

Shall the Marin Municipal Water System Become:

—AN APOTHECARY FOR MEDICINALS?
—A CLINIC FOR MEDICAL EXPERIMENTATION?
—A DISPENSARY FOR MEDICAL TREATMENT?

Your answer to the above questions and to the questions below should determine your vote on proposition B (Fluoridation)

Proponents and opponents of fluoridation of the public water supply have been and still are engaged in debating the merits or demerits of fluoridation. Such debates tend to obscure and divert thought from the broader and far reaching issue underlying fluoridation. That issue is whether a public water system should be used as a vehicle to introduce and enforce mass medical treatment. We maintain that if all which the proponents of fluoridation claim for it were true, Proposition B should nevertheless be defeated.

That fluoridation constitutes unsolicited and involuntary medical treatment was indicated in a recent St. Louis court decision. According to a United Press release, which appeared in the October 14, 1960 issue of the Independent-Journal (San Rafael), a St. Louis court, "tossing out a law calling for fluoridation, said: 'The County Council cannot compel everyone in the County to submit to dental treatment.'"

1. Do you believe that each individual should have freedom of choice to treat his health as he deems best?

If your answer to this question is "Yes," you should vote "No" on Proposition "B," because fluoridation of the public water supply does not give one such freedom of choice.

● Many dentists are uncertain as to whether or not fluoridation is an aid to teeth of pre-teenage children, as is alleged by proponents of fluoridation. These dentists regard fluoridation as a medical experiment.

2. Do you want the Marin Municipal Water System to be used as a clinic for medical experimentation?

If your answer to this question is "No," you should vote "No" on Proposition "B."

● Sodium fluoride is a medicament which is placed in water, not to treat or affect the water, as chlorine or other water disinfectants do, but rather to treat and affect a part of the human anatomy, children's teeth. This is medical treatment! That fluoridation is medical treatment is admitted by the proponents of fluoridation. In their "Argument for Fluoridation Initiative," which officially accompanied our ballots last June, a group calling itself the "Children's Dental Health Committee of Marin County" stated that, "Fluoridation is preventive medicine."

3. Do you believe that the public water supply is a proper place for one to obtain medicine?

If your answer to this question is "No," you you should vote "No" on Proposition "B."

4. Are you in favor of compulsory mass medical treatment?

If your answer to this question is "No," you you should vote "No" on Proposition "B."

5. Do we have any assurance that the enactment of Proposition "B" will not ultimately result in the placing in our public water supply of as many and varied medical prescriptives as there are disease campaigns?

If your answer to this question is "No," and you do not wish to have a number of medicinals placed in our water supply, you should vote "No" on Proposition "B."

6. Should a municipality compel the people of a community to drink medicated water, anymore than it should compel them to eat medicated food?

If your answer to this question is "No," you should vote "No" on Proposition "B."

● Compulsory medical treatment, through fluoridation of the public water supply, is mass regimentation which is contrary to the American way of life.

7. Are you opposed to opening the door to such mass medical regimentation?

If your answer to this question is "Yes," you should vote "No" on Proposition "B."

● More than 50% of those people in the Marin Municipal Water District who voted last June on fluoridation rejected that measure.

8. Should the protests of these people, including parents who do not want such medical treatment for their children nor for themselves, be overruled?

If your answer to this question is "No," you you should vote "No" on Proposition "B."

9. Even if one wants fluoridation treatment for himself, is it proper to subject one's neighbors, friends, guests, and others to such treatment against their wishes?

If your answer to this question is "No," you should vote "No" on Proposition "B."

10. Would you like to have the water of the Marin Municipal Water District become anything but water?

If your answer to this question is "No," you should vote "No" on Proposition "B."

Fluoridation of the public water supply is an imposition on great numbers of people who do not want it

IF YOU DO NOT WISH TO FORFEIT YOUR RIGHT TO DETERMINE FOR YOURSELF THE TREATMENT OF YOUR HEALTH, YOU SHOULD

VOTE "NO" ON PROPOSITION "B"

Seeds Of Eucalyptus Trees Given Out Here

No less authority than B. G. Dawson, Australian government trade commissoner, vouches for this, and has taken action to improve the situation still more.

Starting an enthusiasts' experiment to grow more and different eucalypti in Marin and three neighbor countries, he has given 100 free packets of seeds to eager members of District 4A, California Garden Clubs.

Idea was that the women scurried off to their homes following their quarterly meeting yesterday at the Art and Garden Center in Ross, and presumably all started growing eucalypti.

This is a good idea, averred Dawson, because of the especially favorable setting here.

"It seems to be mostly the damp air at night that does it," he said. "Fog helps. The trees are expert at taking in moisture through their leaves and they love it here."

Mrs. J. Paul Hurd of 40 Country Club Drive, Mill Valley, who is co-director for Marin County of the state organization, started the project by going to Dawson's office in San Francisco and asking his cooperation on the clubs' study of Australian plants.

Dawson promptly arranged with the Department of Agriculture in New South Wales to provide seeds from the Royal Botanical Gardens in Melbourne and Sydney.

These he delivered, with a talk, at yesterday's meeting which included representatives of 39 clubs in Marin, Contra Costa, Alameda and San Francisco Counties, comprising District 4-A.

EDUCATION SERIES

Must Get Pupils To Ask Questions

A teacher's big job is not to give answers so much as to get children to ask questions, a San Francisco State College professor suggested last night at the College of Marin.

"The most exciting thing in the world is when children really want to find things out," Dr. Edith Merritt, head of the elementary education department at the college, declared.

Dr. Merritt spoke in the fourth session of a six-week course on "Public Education: Criticisms and Issues." She answered questions on criticisms of elementary schools.

"Give children a chance to explore in depth," Dr. Merritt urged. A good unit in the primary grades doesn't deal primarily with facts, she said. Its purpose is to get the child to think and realize there are more questions in the world than you can think of, she told the class.

Children should be taught how to identify a problem, how to get the facts about it, and what to do about it when they get the facts, she stressed.

You can get children to memorize facts, Dr. Merritt noted, but you have to get them to do something about the facts.

The professor noted that by state law American history is taught in fifth and eighth, grades, high school and college. "Something is wrong with our teaching that we have to do it so many times. The big problems of the world are not of history but of economics," she said.

Children need to be getting something about economics, sociology, anthropology, Dr. Merritt said.

In social studies the facts don't stay the same, she said. "You have to teach in such a way that children can keep on accumulating facts and know how to discard the old ones," she commented.

In a discussion of grouping, Dr. Merritt noted that the reason for grouping in a classroom was a "teacher reason" and not a "child reason." In the opinion of many, it's the best way to handle a situation, and an economical way of teaching, but it won't solve problems, the professor said.

There is no such thing as "the" way to group children, she said. "We have to think of several patterns of grouping. Maybe we have to do some kind of adjustments in the classrooms, find ways children can be in several groups.

"I really believe children are different. One of the injustices is that we are trying to fit them into grade molds which are inflexible," she said.

"If we could guarantee that no teacher had to work with more than 25 children, we wouldn't have to worry about what group he is in. That's my panacea," Dr. Merritt declared.

The professor also told the class that if there was one thing she could do for teachers, she would wish that they would stop judging "unless we are going to follow judging with action."

Dr. Merritt said she was "shocked at what teachers say to parents, meaning to be helpful." She urged teachers not to "bandy about our professional information. Then parents will respect us. We have to be careful we don't assess human beings on the basis of figures alone."

GOOD EXCUSE

LEXINGTON, KY (AP)—A big truck was stopped in the street, blocking traffic, so Mrs. Mary C. Tipton stopped her car to call police.

When she returned, her attorney told Police Court Judge Thomas J. Ready, her car had a ticket on it. She was in a loading zone.

Probe Slated On Needy Aid Program

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The state's aid-to-needy children program will be investigated.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown's Advisory Committee on Children and Youth was told yesterday that 61,000 of the 210,000 children getting assistance are illegitimate.

The committee learned that 38 per cent of the 61,000 illegitimate babies were conceived while their mothers were drawing aid to needy children.

NEVER MARRIED

Mrs. Elizabeth MacLatchie of Sacramento, chief of the Department of Social Welfare's Division of Social Security, told the committee 32 per cent of the mothers had never been married.

The coming investigation was announced yesterday after the advisory group heard the report at the opening of a two-day session here.

Mrs. MacLatchie said the great majority of the illegitimate children on relief were from minority races. She said their parents are less able to get work, are the first to be laid off, the last to resume working and draw the lowest pay.

OTHER QUESTIONS

The committee said it will consider this and other subjects during the next year including:

Delinquency prevention.

Health problems in migrant labor camps.

Recommendations on changes in the law, expected soon from the Governor's Juvenile Justice Commission, to insure greater legal protection for children.

The Department of Commerce estimates that there will be 114 million motor vehicles on the highways by 1976. There are some 70 million registered now.

HERE'S GNOOD GNUS IF YOU ARE A GNU

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The zoo knows it and the gnu knows it: It takes a he-gnu and a she-gnu to produce a new gnu.

That's why Griffith Park Zoo is making a deal with the Fresno Zoological Society.

Griffith Park has several she-gnus but no he-gnus. At Fresno, she-gnus are rare but there are he-gnus to spare.

The news is that the two zoos will be making gnus by mating gnus.

Burglar Bites Hole In Doughnut

A hopeful burglar broke into Croy's Foster Freeze at 1908 Fourth Street, San Rafael, last night and rang up $8.11 to open the cash register. There were only two 50-cent rolls of pennies inside.

Police Officer Thomas Cheetham said the burglar apparently pried a sliding plastic window loose from its frame and crawled in through the opening. He left through a rear door.

Owner Milton Martin of 87 E. Crescent Drive, San Rafael, discovered the burglary when he opened the drive-in at 8:22 a.m. today.

Printmakers Enter Member Exhibition

Five Marin members of the Bay Printmakers Society have entered recent graphic works for the annual members' exhibition at the Achenbach Foundation for Graphic Arts, California Palace of the Legion of Honor, San Francisco, from tomorrow through Nov. 27.

Rioting Over Algeria Perils De Gaulle Regime

PARIS (UPI)—Bloody riots and Communist threats of intervention in the bitter six-year-old Algerian war threatened today to plunge France back into the chaos that toppled the Fourth Republic.

Scores of leftist and right-wing demonstrators were injured and more than 500 were arrested in riots in eight French cities yesterday.

In an effort to halt the widespread violence and strife that have reached crisis proportions, President Charles de Gaulle planned to make a nationwide radio broadcast next Friday to rally Frenchmen behind his "middle of the road" approach to the Algerian question.

A series of statements emanating from Moscow and other quarters hinted possible Communist military assistance for the Algerian rebels whose war against France enters its seventh year Tuesday.

Moroccan Crown Prince Moulay Hassan said in London that "in three weeks or a month, a new, very grave factor will intervene in the war in Algeria and this new aspect could change the whole nature of the struggle."

Diplomatic observers seemed to feel this was a warning that Red Chinese "volunteers" might be thrown into the fight on the side of the rebels.

The Communist publications Pravda and Izvestia said yesterday in Moscow that the Soviet Union, which only recently granted the rebels "de facto" recognition, is ready "to help in any way to give aid to the Algerian people in their struggle for independence."

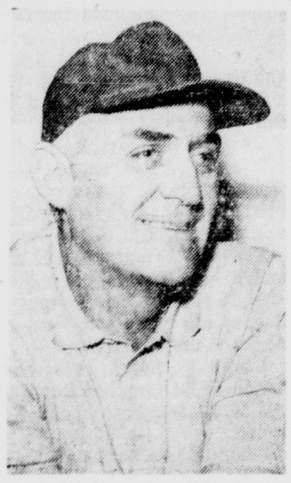
Dissension Among 49er Family? Six Marinites Played Big League

A friend of ours, who has had the opportunity to closely observe the 49er family at work and play over recent years, thinks he has pin-pointed their trouble this season.

After watching the team's smellovision performance last Sunday, our pal became convinced there's trouble a-brewin' between the troops and the general.



SAM CHAPMAN

"I'm not saying the team is laying down intentionally," the informant said, "but they're playing uninspired football. I've come to the opinion that the players do not like Coach Red Hickey.

"It appears they regard him as a dictator and resent the way he handles them. Hickey is a task-master who wants to run the whole show. His assistants are just a bunch of 'yes' men and if any of the players offers a suggestion Hickey just glares at him.

"One player told me everyone resents the way Hickey publicly criticizes the players when they lose, but if they win he bows and takes the credit."

Well, there's another rumor to toss into your pipe, so puff on it awhile.

Meanwhile, we certainly hope the red-shirts improve over last Sunday's game. I hate to spend a Sunday afternoon watching a game of patty-cake in Kezar Stadium.

A READER asks how many Marin County boys made it to the major leagues.

Our recollection is only six—Walter Mails of San Quentin, Sam Chapman of Tiburon, Charley Wensloff of Mill Valley, Art Schallock of Mill Valley, Joe DeMaestri of San Anselmo and Karl Olson of Fairfax.

Pitchers Wensloff and Schallock and infield DeMaestri played for the Yankees and all got World Series thrills; Mails, also a pitcher, make it to the World Series back in 1920 with the Cleveland Indians; outfielder Chapman played most of his career with the Philadelphia Athletics, and Olson, also an outfielder, played for Boston, Washington and Detroit.

Of the World Series players from Marin, Mails has the best record to look back on. He pitched 16 consecutive scoreless innings, including a three-hit, 1-0 shutout over the Brooklyn Dodgers.

DeMaestri is the only still active player.

There may have been more big leaguers who grew up in Marin, but our recollection says no. Marin can claim only partial "ownership" of Pittsburgh's Vernon Law because he spent two years as a young resident of Fairfax back in the early World War II days.

There have been many Marinites in the minor leagues.

If anyone knows about other Marin big leaguers, how about giving us a call.

OVER THE YEARS Harry Pieper, College of Marin's football coach, has developed a sense of humor.

In his profession and particularly in his particular position, Pieper's humor probably has saved him from insanity or ulcers. College of Marin just hasn't produced much football talent in the past decade. In fact the Tars have lost 25 of their last 31 games. For a while it got to be embarrassing to call the coach for details of his games, but after a while Pieper tossed in a joke or two and it got to be fun talking with him.

Yesterday we were discussing tonight's game against Napa and Pieper casually mentioned that three of his players were injured. That leaves Marin with 17 (count 'em, 17) able-bodied players.

"How do you manage to scrimmage?" we asked. "Oh," he answered, "We've had this problem for so long that we've devised various ways to cope with it. Some day I'll write a book and revolutionize the coaching profession. For scrimmage, for example, we use only half a line. I used to get in and scrimmage myself, but I'm getting too old for that now," laughed the former California line star.

And with so few to work with, Pieper notes, "at least I know all my players by name."

For road trips the school actually hires a bus to transport the players, which is a joke. A compact foreign car could do the job.

One night the bus broke down and the Tars were more than an hour late for the game.

How a man can smile through week after week of discouragement like this over the years is difficult for us to believe. Harry must suffer some deep inside, particularly on nights when a team like Sierra runs up 50 points, but he never shows it.

It's refreshing to see their attitude, all 17 of them. Against Napa's 46-man squad tonight Marin deserves a cheer. Give it to 'em.

WE'VE BEEN wearing a gold star on our forehead all week—a reward from the teacher for a perfect 10-for-10 football forecasting record.

The "teach" was particularly impressed with our record of the local high school games. We picked Tam to edge Marin Catholic by one (7-6), Redwood over San Rafael by 19 (18-0) and Novato over Drake by six (21-7).

In addition, we picked Yuba College over Marin by 20 and it came out 28-12, close enough to get a gentle pat on the head from the crystal ball teacher.

The 10 straight goodies boosted our season record to 50 right and 15 wrong.

PROFESSIONALS —Bears over 49ers by 7 and New York over Oakland by 14.

COLLEGES — Oregon State over California by 16, Southern Cal over Stanford by 14, Washington State over San Jose State by six; UCLA over North Carolina State by 13, Washington over Oregon by 1; COP over Idaho by 7; Napa over Marin by 14.

HIGH SCHOOLS — Redwood over Tam by 7; Drake over San Rafael by 13; Novato over Marin Catholic by 14.

I STILL LOVE that line about there are so many sports car in Sausalito that it's been two years since a pedestrian has been hit above the knees.

A.L. Expansion 'Too Fast,' Frick Claims

NEW YORK (AP) — Commissioner Ford Frick, National League President Warren Giles and Los Angeles Lodger owner Walter O'Malley notwithstanding, the American League definitely will operate as a 10-team league in 1961, one year before the rival older circuit follows suit with as many clubs.

"I respect the commissioner's wishes and I don't wish to sound like we are opposing him," said George Medinger, vice president of the Cleveland Indians and a member of the A.L. Expansion Committee, "but we're going ahead with 10 teams next year. There were people in our league who thought we were moving too fast, but the majority agreed it was the proper move."

Frick met with Joe Cronin yesterday and told the American League president he would have preferred expansion in 1962.

"I told Joe that trying to get started in 1961 constituted quite a problem," said Frick. "That was doing things awfully fast and I wished they might have waited until 1962."

Giles, upon learning the Americans had granted franchises to Los Angeles and Minneapolis-St. Paul shifting the Washington Senators to the Twin-Cities and placing another team in the nation's capital, contended the N.L.'s granting of franchises to New York and Houston for 1962 was a "more practical" plan.

O'Malley, who pioneered major league ball in Los Angeles, deplored the American's "hasty action," and added: "Another full baseball schedule would wreak havoc in Los Angeles."

"We are aware there'll be problems," said Medinger, "but we feel we can surmount them."

Although no prospective buyers for the Los Angeles and Washington franchises have been identified, it was learned that Hank Greenberg and Bill Veeck will land the Los Angeles plum. Veeck, as president, are principal stockholders in the Chicago White Sox, but they are expected to sell their stock in the near future.

"Greenberg and Veeck had several irons in the fire," an American League baseball man said. "If Los Angeles had not opened up, they would have gone into Washington. If that had failed to open up, they were prepared to buy the Kansas City club."

With the spring training season little more than three months off, the American League busied itself with the problem of stocking two new franchises. A plan to supply players was devised yesterday by the eight general managers and will be presented to the owners at next month's meeting.

Each major league team would freeze 15 players on its 40-player roster. Of the remaining 25, 10 would be placed in Class A and 15 in Class B.

Los Angeles and Washington would be permitted to purchase up to three Class A players from each of the clubs for a set price of $75,000 each, and no more than one player from each club in Class B for $40,000 each.

The two new clubs also will be given priority in the major league draft in Louisville, Nov. 28.

49er 'Pride' Makes Sunday Tilt Even

George Halas, owner-coach of the Chicago Bears, says Sunday's game with the San Francisco 49ers at Kezar Stadium will be a tossup.

To those who watched the Bears chew up the 49ers 27-10 in a televsed game at Chicago two weeks ago, Halas' remarks seem almost ludicrous.

But Halas, admittedly a showman with an eye on ticket sales, still reckons on a powerful factor that isn't listed in the statistical columns: Pride.

And Halas, who's been around the league as long as anyone, knows it well.

The 49ers don't lose easily. When they look bad losing, it bothers 'em. And brother, the 49ers have looked bad for two weeks running.

Halas knows that men who take a socking and a bruising every Sunday take their work seriously. And he knows too that somehow the aches and pains aren't quite so bad when you win.

Coach Red Hickey of the 49ers was ready to explode after Green Bay shellacked the 49ers 41-14 last Sunday.

But when he finally got to discussing things with his team, he was surprisingly gentle and understanding. Hickey knew the 49ers were embarrased by their play. And no matter how rugged the workouts may be, the only place to make up for a poor game is on the playing field — where it counts.

Back to the starting 49er lineup Sunday comes Y. A. Tittle, the veteran quarterback who is among the most respected old pros in the league. Returning to the offensive line are tackle John Thomas, who had been out with a broken hand, and center Frank Morze. They represent some of the blocking that has been missing.

TARS BATTLE NAPA TONIGHT AT KENTFIELD

The Golden Valley Conference game will start at 8 o'clock and the evening's activities also will feature the crowning of the school's homecoming queen.

With three more players on the injury list—end Mike Cicero, guard Dan Naughton and halfback Fred Pfeffer—the Tars are underdogs and expected to lose their sixth straight game of the season and 14 in a row dating back to September of 1959.

Napa has won two of its five games, including a 26-8 victory over the same Yuba team that last week trimmed Marin 28-12.

Marin's starting lineup will be Mike Rawitser and Hampton Hoge at ends, Frank Gallardo and Harry Hersh tackles, Morrey Nelson and Chet McDermott guards, Martin McKeay center, quarterback Ron Blum, halfbacks Russ Cook and John Harris and fullback Denny Unterman.

Raiders Play N.Y. Tonight

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Oakland Raiders, working with a 1-2 passing combination, go against the New York Titans tonight as the American Football League rolls past the halfway mark of its first season this weekend.

The Raiders, no better than 3-4 and third in the Western Division, have a choice of Tom Flores or Babe Parilli for their passing attack.

The host Titans, second to Houston in the Eastern Division with a 4-3 record, lead the league in passing.

Tonight's only other game sends the Los Angeles Chargers to Boston against the Patriots. Boston already has put away a 35-0 victory over the Chargers, who have lost two since.

Both division leaders play Sunday. Houston, tops in offense but last in defense, is at Buffalo against the Bills, who are first in defense, last in offense. The Denver Broncos, 4-2 in the Western Division, play at home against the Dallas Texans, who have lost three in a row.

Twin Cities Boys Use Redwood Gym

Redwood High School's gymnasium will be open every Monday night 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock, for members of the Twin Cities Boys Club of Larkspur-Corte Madera, it was announced today.

Activities will include basketball, trampoline, volleyball, tumbling, etc.

Fired Up Pirates Aim At Bulldogs Tonight

Drake High's Pirates, fighting mad at themselves for last week's 14-21 loss to Novato, invade San Rafael High tonight to battle the Bulldogs in the Marin Athletic League football feature of the evening.

With a solid and well-balanced offense built around quarterback Sam Johnson, the Pirates are favored to win their second game against one loss and hand San Rafael its third straight league setback.

The varsity game starts at 8 o'clock and a preliminary game starting at 5:45 p.m. will feature each school's undefeated freshman team in a battle for the frosh league lead.

San Rafael, which has had trouble putting together an offense in recent games, undoubtedly will try to get off to a fast start in the opening quarter. Drake's defensive record shows terrible first quarter work at times—like last week when Novato ran up a 21-0 lead before the Pirates knew what hit them.

However, once they reassembled their shattered troops, the Pirates were mean indeed, beating Novato

Drake escaped the Novato contest without injury, and the starting lineup will be the same as last week's: End Bill Collins and Gary Schlueter, tackles Bob Whelan and Ken Peck, guards Lloyd Stasiowski and Jack Wisler, center Dale Thompson, quarterback Johnson, halfbacks Rich Bottini and Mike Bresnan and fullback Scott Moriarty.

San Rafael Coach Dick Read said wingback Garv Ledson, plagued by injuries all season, suffered possible internal injuries Tuesday and has been hospitalized for observation.

The line will start Randy Petrini and Jack Chapman at ends, Chris Yaeger and Dennis Nickel tackles, Dwight Stewart and Don Burrows guards and George Bullis center.

Campus Raids Add Fireworks To Tam-Redwood Grid Battle

Inspired by the pre-game fireworks of campus raids, the fierce football rivalry between Redwood and Tamalpais high schools moves off the campus and onto the gridiron at Kentfield tomorrow afternoon in an important Marin County League game.

And if the football players show as much enthusiasm as their fellow students, the showdown tomorrow at 2 o'clock should produce one of the best games of the year.

Redwood's Giants, who haven't lost a league game in the year and a half history of the new conference, rate the favorites' role to take the undisputed leadership in the title race. They are tied with Tam, each with 2-0 records.

Redwood's victims have been Novato 19-14 and San Rafael 18-0. Tam has beaten San Rafael 20-6 and Marin Catholic 7-6.

An offense polished to machine-like perfection and featuring the explosive running of halfback Mike Alessio and the passing of quarterback Roger Siemens are Redwood's brightest weapons. John Whitney is an excellent target for Siemens. Too, the Giant defense has been superb in its two league victories giving up just two touchdowns. Key man of the defending crew is linebacker Mike Hoffman, one of the best in the league.

Redwood's defense will have to be alert to contain Tam's speedy backs who can kill you with long gainers. Sprint star Pat Morgan and Warren Domino are Tam's explosive weapons who love to run the ends. Quarterback Tex Hamilton has recovered from an injury and will start. Norm Kreuter at fullback rounds out Tam's starting backfield. Coach Jim Hanretty was contemplating some changes in his starting line and will not announce it until tomorrow.

Redwood Coach Bob Troppman said Siemens, Alessio, Keith Norton and Ned Griffith will compose his starting backfield, while the line will go with Whitney and Herb Shrieber at ends, Jon Keppel and Hoffman tackles, Ralph Wood and John Clum guards and Mike Walsh center.

With three "Mikes" in the Redwood lineup, it is only natural for Radio KTIM to broadcast the game, which will be starting at 2 o'clock.

Richards Joins Rigney In Detroit's Rumor Derby

DETROIT (AP) — A report by the Detroit Free Press that the Detroit Tigers were trying to sign Paul Richards as manager of the club to replace the departed Joe Gordon has been denied by Richards.

Richards is manager of the Baltimore Orioles and has a 1961 contract.

Lyall Smith, Detroit Free Press sports editor, wrote last night that Rick Ferrell, acting Tiger general manager, and James Campbell, a club vice president, had gone to Phoenix, Ariz., to "try to woo Richards into stepping out of his contract to manage Baltimore next season in exchange for a lush five-year pact at Detroit."

Richards, contacted in Scottsdale, Ariz., said the Free Press report was erroneous.

The Detroit Times said yesterday it had learned that Bill Rigney, former manager of the San Francisco Giants, would be named to manage the Tigers.

The Times said confirmation of Rigney's selection at $30,000 a year would come shortly from John E. Fetzer, who owns controlling interest in the Detroit Baseball Co.

Rigney previously had been mentioned by The Associated Press as a likely successor to Gordon. Gordon quit the Tigers to become Kansas City manager at the end of the 1960 American League season.

The Detroit News, however, said Harry M. Sisson, executive vice president of the Tigers, claimed no one had been picked for the job, adding that Sisson "declared that there was no truth in a report that . . . Rigney . . . had been signed for the Detroit job."

Rigney, at his home in Walnut Creek, Calif., also denied that he had signed.

Little League Meet Next Week

Officers and directors for Sausalito's 1961 Little League season will be elected next Thursday at the annual Little League meeting in the Sausalito City Hall.

All Sausalitans interested in participating in Little League direction are urged to attend the 8 p.m. meeting, according to Dr. Robert Perlman, president of the organization.

Dr. Perlman stated that organizational help is needed from parents of all of the participating boys and other interested adults for continued progress in the seven-year-old league. He reported that almost 100 boys played Little League ball in Sausalito this year, and that the league was expanded to five teams.

Kezar Memorial For Tony Morabito

A bench and plaque in memory of the late Anthony J. Morabito will be dedicated at Kezar Stadium Sunday before the 49ers meet the Chicago Bears.

With JOHN J. CONNOLLY

CONNOLLY

Some weeks ago we started plugging for some speed in the backfield of the San Francisco 49ers and suggested that Abe Woodson be pulled from the defense and shoved into the offense. We must confess to more than a fleeting satisfaction to see that Coach Red Hickey has finally come up with the same idea.

Since no one else would do it, we were patting our own back the other day when the phone rang. It was our OTHER reader, who said, "Okay, wise guy, so you guessed right for once. So what else would you do with the 49ers?"

Being able to resist almost anything but the opportunity to shoot off our big mouth, we are accepting the challenge.

Coach Connolly would go one step farther and would activate a few specialists who adorn the 49er bench. Lenny Lyles would move into the same backfield with Woodson. Lenny usually sees action only on kickoff and punt returns, and he has too much potential to spend 55 minutes of every games gathering splinters on the bench.

C. R. ROBERTS is another eager beaver who has callouses on his backside because Smith and Joe Perry are ahead of him. Roberts would get a shot at an offensive line position on my team. And I would give a couple of looks at Ed "Mad Dog Henke as an offensive guard.

When Ted Connolly was hurt, Coach Hickey moved rookie Mike Magac into his spot. Now if you have ever seen Mike lumbering down field in the pre-game warmups you would admire his effort but not his speed. Henke might be just the man to be able to pull out of the line and give a block ahead of the ball carrier on an end sweep. He loves the going and he can move.

COACH CONNOLLY would give his quarterbacks a couple of option plays where they would pass or run, and if John Brodie and Y. A. Tittle are tackle shy, I'd let third string quarterback Bobbie Waters have a crack at it. And don't think he wouldn't jump at the opportunity.

Finally, I would occasionally have another pampered specialist in on third down instead of fourth. This would be kicker Tommy Davis. Operating from a modified single wing, Davis could give the defense fits with the threat of a pass, run or quick kick. And Davis would run for the downs for me on a fourth and two situation once and a while. Tommy was no slouch at Louisiana State. Some of his talent is being wasted.

Now that Red Hickey has quit laughing, let's face reality. Don't expect the 49ers to throw caution to the winds and play a razzle-dazzle offense featuring a rookie filled lineup. The very essence of pro ball and one of the factors that keeps it alive is the fulfillment of the obligation to play each game for keeps and always try to knock off the top dog even if you have lost every preceeding game.

I ONLY HOPE Head Scout "Pappy" Waldorf is beating the bushes for some speedy men who can block. Frankly, I feel that the pros have gone too far in buying beef instead of finesse. Many of the old heads are going to fall next year and the new crop of rookies will see plenty of action.

Sunday it is the big, bad Bears from Chicago at Kezar Stadium. I have a hunch the 49ers will be looking for revenge and a reverse of the score of two weeks ago at Chicago.

O'Doul Sees World Series With Japan

TOKYO (AP) — Frank Lefty O'Doul, veteran U.S. sports anmassador, today proposed an annual Japan-American world baseball championship series starting in 1964, year of the Tokyo Olympics.

Japanese baseball is really coming of age, said O'Doul, veteran outfielder and manager who helped pioneer the sport here during the 1930's and is accompanying the barnstorming San Francisco Giants.

"I wouldn't say the Japanese could win, but by 1964 they should be able to make it competitive for the U.S. champions," said the 63-year-old San Franciscan. He suggested 1964 as a natural because of world sports attention on Japan during the Olympics.

O'Doul said in an interview he would make his proposal to Ford Frick, U.S. commissioner of baseball, and to Japanese baseball officals.

DREAM SERIES

If they agree, O'Doul said, "it would be a dream he has had throughout 15 journeys to Japan teaching and promoting the great American sport. The most unforgettable of his trips was 1934, when he brought Babe Ruth, Lefty Gomez and Jimmy Foxx on the same All-Star team.

Walking on crutches through his hotel while nursing a torn achilles tendon, O'Doul is constantly hailed by Japanese oldtimers who fondly recall his pre-war barnstorming trips.

O'Doul, who claims a .349 lifetime major league batting average, said Japanese baseball is already Triple A caliber and by 1964 should be even closer to U.S. major league standards.

"They already have lots of pitchers who can pitch to our major leaguers," he said.

Tam Runner Sets Cross-Country Mark At Redwood

Tamalpais High School senior track star Bob Hope set a course record as he led his cross-country running team to victory over five other north bay schools Wednesday at Redwood High.

Hope covered the approximately two-mile long course in 12 minutes, 4 seconds. The old record was 12:36.

Tam won the team standings with the low score of 37 points, followed by Redwood 56, Vallejo 80, Sonoma 110, Analy 111, Montgomery 142 and Napa 149.

Following are the first 12 to finish:

Bob Hope (T), 12:04; Roger Sturgeon (V), 12:53; Marv Stephens (R), 13:24; Steve Bohannon (R), 13:32; Danny Smith (T), 13:41; Jay Johnson (V), 13:51; William Carey (Son.), 13:52; Larry Skram (N), 13:53; Reed Dillingham (T), 14:02; Bill Olson (T), 14:05; Bob Keller (R), 14:09; Dennis Langhoff (T), 14:14.

Drip Does It

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP) — The word was flashed on police radio: A 16-gallon keg, full to the brim, nad been stolen from a beer truck.

Officers in a cruise car noticed a healthy drip from the trunk of an automobile just ahead. It was from the stolen keg, which had tipped over in flight.

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The northwest steals the show for the second straight time along the coast tomorrow when Washington and Oregon meet at Seattle in what should be a spine-tingler even if it also is a non-conference tilt.

Both teams sport 5-1 records and a fine battle is on tap between Bob Hivner, Washington's quarterback who has taken over for the injured Bob Schloredt, and big Dave Grosz of the Ducks. There also is a good duel coming between the halfbacks with George Fleming, Washington's steady runner and place-kicker, offsetting the spurts of Cleveland Jones, the Ducks' five-foot, three-inch scatback.

In other games, Southern California invades Stanford for a Big Five clash that should send Troy into a first place tie with the Huskies, California is at Oregon State, North Carolina State meets UCLA in a Saturday night intersectional. Washington States comes to hopped-up San Jose State and Idaho is at College of the Pacific.

Mike McKeever, Southern California's fierce guard, may have shaken off the sinus trouble and be able to go against Stanford. The Indians have lost all six of their games to date and this next one figures to keep their slate unblemished.

Only 69 yards and feeble California, another winless outfit, separate tailback Terry Baker of Oregon State from a new school offense record. The old mark is 1,082 which Joe Francis took 10 games to set in 1957. Baker is heading into his seventh.

Roman Gabriel is the latest hot passer which UCLA must face when North Carolina State goes into the Los Angeles Coliseum. Coach Bill Barnes of the Bruins has warned that they are in for a tough test. Gabriel will meet a sharp passer in Bill Kilmer, the Bruins' star tailback.

Washington State, with halfback Keith Lincoln on the doubtful list, meets a San Jose team which has knocked off Stanford and Arizona State in its last two outings. The Spartans are deploying their defenses to stop the passing of Mel Melin—no Bobby Newman exactly, but still dangerous.

Stokes Seeks 8th Straight Drag Victory

Stokes last week also held fastest time of the day at 140 mph, sharing the honors with the stock car championship winners.

Among the entrants will be Willie Davis of Richmond winner in two classes last week, and Mike Blessing of Napa, who will defend his little eliminator honors.

Gates at the Highway 40 strip will open at 8 a.m. with eliminations slated for 1:30 p.m.

Devine Sale

Mrs. Julia Henderson, owner and pastor, is advertising for a buyer for the non-denominational Lighthouse Gospel Tabernacle. The church includes a quonset hut type building, organ, piano, pews and a regular congregation of about 100.

Mrs. Henderson and her husband founded the tabernacle in 1950. Mr. Henderson died three years ago. Mrs. Henderson wants to become a traveling evangelist.

There is one requirement for the purchaser. He must be a "real pastor."

Some Sobering Thoughts On New Los Angeles Team

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Everyone seems to be glad the American League is locating a franchise in Los Angeles, but there have been some sober reflections about the timing.

The Examiner's Melvin Durslag had this to say about it today:

"Obviously, there is no objection here to a second big league team, but you pause to wonder whether the American League was in complete control of its faculties or merely swept into the drama of expansion when it voted suddenly to come to Los Angeles in 1961.

"When you get down to cases, we haven't yet launched our first team here. Construction of the stadium has just begun.

"The masked marvels who are bringing American League baseball to Los Angeles clearly haven't investigated the immediate problems that confront them.

"To start with, they are facing a strangling rental of 10 per cent at the Coliseum, with no concessions benefits. Anyone less solvent than Walter O'Malley (owner of the Dodgers) can be slaughtered by such fees.

"It must be remembered that O'Malley experienced two fat years before having to buck that insane rental. He came here, besides, gloriously in the black, with a world famous team.

"The new guys, fielding mostly nondescripts, will be pioneering, eating away at their capital, which, for their sake, had better not be small.

"Secondly, it cost O'Malley $450,000 to rid the territory of the Pacific Coast League. Walter isn't going to watch vacantly while his racket is diluted by people who have announced no provisions for the indemnification money. Nor is he going to look kindly upon their using for free the equipment he installed in the Coliseum at a cost of about $300,000.

"It will be Walter who eventually will be dictating the rental terms to his American League tenant at Chavez Ravine, and he may be less than charitable."

ANDRADE CHALLENGES

Brown Favored In Title Go Tonight

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The world lightweight crown, one of the brighter baubles of boxing, will be at stake tonight when champion Joe Brown of Houston and California's Cisco Andrade tangle at the Olymmic Auditorium.

It will be the ninth defense of the title by "Old Bones," establishing a record of title defenses for the 135-pound division. The late Benny Leonard successfully defended the title eight times.

The co-promoters, Cal Eaton and George Parnesses, hope for a turnout of 8,000 and a $70,000 gate.

Brown was guaranteed $40,000 and his 30-year-old foe, from nearby Compton, gets 20 per cent of the gate. A rematch was guaranteed if Brown loses.

Few will be surprised if the match ends before the scheduled 15 rounds, but the longer it goes the more the younger Andrade may be favored.

Brown is noted as a one-punch artist and has knocked out 38 opponents in his 80 victories.

Andrade also boasts a punch. Of his 44 wins, 24 were by knockouts. The Cisco Kid, who twice retired in the past two years, stopped all four of his 1960 opponents.

Duden Top Winner In Vegas Pro-Am Golf

The 40-year-old Portland, Ore., pro fashioned a 68 in the final round to finish with a 54-hole score of 207. He won $1,000.

Duden is the inventor of the arched shaft, which is used between the feet like a croquet mallet. His uncanny putting enabled him to finish four under par.

Tied for second place, with $725 each, were Doug Sanders, Ojai, Calif., and Paul Harney, Worcester, Mass., with 209s.

McCOVEY'S TWO HOMERS PACE GIANTS' WIN

SENDAI, Japan (AP)—Two home runs by Willie McCovey and one by Felipe Alou powered the San Francisco Giants to a 7-3 triumph over the Japan baseball All-Stars today. It was the Giants' third straight victory after they had lost their first two games in Japan.

McCovey's two shots into the bleachers drove in three runs. Alou's 390-foot blast into the left field stands came in the top of the fifth inning and tied the score at 1-1.

The Giants broke the tie in the sixth by scoring five runs, two of them on McCovey's first homer with one on. It was a long drive to right.

Washington May Pay $500,000 For New Franchise

DAYTONA, BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Something near half a million dollars apparently is the price American Assn. directors are thinking of asking for giving up the Minneapolis and St. Paul franchises to major league baseball.

Directors are inclined to feel the $450,000 which the National League paid for the Los Angeles and San Francisco areas set a precedent, Ed Doherty, president of the American Association, said last night.

So far, he said, the league hasn't been officially notified that the Washington Senators are moving to Minneapolis-St. Paul next season in an expansion of the American League to 10 teams. After notification is received, association directors will meet to determine an asking price for the territory.

The FISHIN' FOOL

By RALPH STEVENS,
I-J Fish and Game Writer

National Pollution Conference Vital To Bay Area Fisheries

STEVENS

We are in receipt of a paper from Robert S. Hutchings, information officer of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Washington, D. C.

The paper calls attention to the National Conference on Water Pollution throughout the United States. It will be attended by some 1,500 persons, representing professional and public health groups, conservation groups, civic organizations, industry, labor and local state and federal governments.

The subject of pollution is of particular interest to all sports fishermen and hunters. Certainly to us who fish in the bay and delta regions.

We realize that the disposal of more and more waste in our waterways is destroying the environment in which fish and wildlife can live and multiply. We have raised our voices many times in the past decade against pollution from all sources. Corrective measures have been taken in some instances (the comeback of the Napa River as a bass-fishing stream is an example), we admit. But no intelligent observer can deny that much is still to be done locally and in the back country before we can honestly say the problem has been solved.

WHENEVER SOME mill or refining plant discharges pollutants into the bay—such as happened a few years ago—and hundreds of dead fish clutter up the shores as a result, everyone becomes suddenly aware of how dangerous to fish life such events can be. Such occurrences are spectacular; the cause and effect are there to be seen.

But most people have no idea of how long-lasting such a spill of pollutants can be. The immediate effect only is seen and heeded. But, as a matter of cold hard fact, a slug of cyanide, acid or other harmful chemical discharged into the lower bay, flows along for many miles, killing thousands of small fish on its way. Also, whereas the contaminated water may pass a given point in a matter of minutes, its effect may be felt for years.

WE QUOTE from a paragraph in the release: "Fish, like all forms of life, must have oxygen to live. They use the oxygen dissolved in the water by breathing through their gills. When organic waste like raw sewage reaches the water it begins to break down, using up the oxygen dissolved in the water as it does so. Fish and other water animals suffocate if the process of decomposition requires so much oxygen that the amount left in the water is not enough for the fish."

Here is another quote from the same paper: "The introduction of any pollutant, whether organic or inorganic, may upset the balance of the aquatic environment if it is lethal to a particular link in the food chain."

FOR EXAMPLE: If the shrimp are killed off by pollution, the striped bass and other fishes who feed on shrimp are left without part of their natural food supply. The same thing applies to crabs or pileworms.

Now add to the recognized dangers of pollution of our bay waters, the mainly overlooked overabundance of small bass—the millions upon millions that have bred in the back country nurseries or the Suisun Bay kindergarten, and are all set to go to sea—fiercely hungry and ready to eat everything in sight. Then won't you admit that we have a situation that is highly dangerous and threatening for the future of bass fishing?

AS A RESULT of the National Conference to be held in Washington, Dec. 12-14, we have high hopes that some long steps will be taken in the direction of better control of pollution. But we who are lovers of fishing the striper in our vast bays can do something about conserving our supply in the immediate future by getting rid of enough of them so that those remaining as well as the incoming schools will have sufficient food.

A first and all important step might well be: Reduce the present size limit to 12 inches and increase the present bag limit to at least five fish.

As we stated in a recent column, it's up to you. The squeaking wheel gets the grease, it's up to you. So, start squeaking, brother, start squeaking!

S.R. Little League Meeting Tuesday

Annual parents organizational meeting of the San Rafael American Little League will be held at 8 p.m. next Tuesday in the City Hall Council chambers. This meeting will be short with election and or re-election of directors scheduled as the principal event. Parents of boys who will be eight years old by Aug. 1, 1961 and start Little League next spring should be particularly interested and are urged to attend.

HUNTING TRIP A ROARING SUCCESS

Here's picture proof that a 10-day hunting trip in Idaho was a roaring success for these two San Rafael businessmen. Don Myers (left) proudly displays the four point Elk buck he downed with his trusty 30:06. It weighed about 550 pounds and was killed about 80 miles from McCall, Idaho. His hunting partner is Ray Willits. Each collected two deer and Willits bagged that bobcat at left. Willits is partner in the Davis Saw Service and Myers is owner of Myers Construction Co. Indy Cars To Race Sunday At Cal Fairgrounds Track

Bobby Grim, 1959 Indianapolis "Rookie of the Year," and Elmer George, 1957 Mid-West sprint car champion from Speedway, Ind., came into the fold today to bring to 14 the number of Indianapolis veterans entered for Sunday afternoon's 10th annual 100-mile USAC National Championship auto race at the Sacramento State Fair Ground's mile dirt track.

Also filing to bring the final count to 27 drivers is Cliff Spalding, Lynwood, Wash. He'll drive the No. 91 Ed Conner Speed Sport Special from Seattle in the only race in California each year for Indianapolis cars.

Other Indianapolis veterans set for a crack at the more than $12,000 in prize money that J. C. Agajanian is offering include Rodger Ward, A. J. Foyt, Tony Bettenhausen, Jim Hurtubise, Lloyd Ruby, Eddie Sachs, Bill Homeier, Dempsey Wilson, Gene Force, Wayne Weiler, Don Branson and Len Sutton.

Grim was the fastest rookie qualifier at Indian apolis at 144.225 MPH, until Hurtubise, the 1960 Indianapolis "Rookie of the Year," turned his four laps at 149.056 MPH, the fastest ever recorded at the Speedway. Bobby, who lives in Indianapolis, won the 100-miler this year at Syracuse, N.Y. Other winners entered in the "Golden State Hundred" include Ward (2), Foyt (2), Hurtubise, who also won last year's Sacramento race; Sachs and Sutton. Missing is Jim Rathmann, who doesn't run the dirt, and the late Jim Packard.

There will be the traditional parade through Sacramento tomorrow afternoon, while the annual night before the race show, which features films of the Indianapolis race, and the introduction of drivers, will be held on the Fair Grounds at 8:30 p.m. It is free and open to the public.

Quail Season Opens With Good Prospect

The seasons on quail, chukar partridges and tree squirrels open in parts of northern California tomorrow with good prospects in store.

State Fish and Game officials report quail and chukars had successful late hatches in northern California, though doing poorly in southern desert areas.

Tree squirrel surveys, they said, show populations about the same as last year.

Quail season will run through Dec. 15 in Lassen, Plumas and Modoc counties and in parts of Siskiyou, Shasta and Sierra, with a limit of 10 birds a day.

The season runs through Jan. 2, with an eight-bag limit, in the rest of northern California. The same bag applies in Southern California, where the season will run from Nov. 12 through Jan. 2.

Chukar season opens in Lassen, Plumas, San Benito, Kings, Kern, San Luis Obispo, Alpine, Nevada, Placer, and parts of Sierra, El Dorado, Merced, Madera, Fresno and Tulare counties. It runs through Dec. 15 in Lassen, Plumas and part of Sierra, through Jan. 2 in the other areas.

In the south, the season will run from Nov. 12 through Jan. 2. A two-a-day bag applies statewide.

A same limit applies to tree squirrels, which can be hunted through Jan. 2 in all parts of the north except Plumas County, and parts of Siskiyou, Shasta and Lassen, where the season ends Dec. 15.

Project 17 Architect Urged In Mill Valley

The Mill Valley City Council will be asked Wednesday to hire an architect to be responsible for the design of all structures in Project 17, the city's marshland recreation development.

Both the parks and recreation commission and the architectural advisory committee said today will make such recommendations. It is expected that the planning commission and library board will follow suit.

Representatives of the four boards met last night to discuss hiring an architect to provide an over-all theme for the 17-acre recreation area. Joseph C. Brewster, chairman of the parks and recreation commission, headed the meeting.

Agitation for an over-all there followed a recent request of the Mill Valley Optimist Club for permission to construct a building with lockers and toilet facilities to be used by ballplayers at the club's baseball diamond on the project. The Optimists were stalled off by both city council and planning commission.

The architectural advisory committee will suggest that one person be appointed from each of the four groups, plus one from the city council, to work with the architect.

The Park and Recreation Commission suggested that a detailed plan of a multiple purpose building be made, a portion of which could serve the present needs and that it be started soon by interested groups.

Landscaping of the project is being planned by the county planning staff.

Shooting For Space

A high-speed hydrogen gun is used in a Republic Aviation Corp. test chamber to fire tiny projectiles at experimental space vehicles. The plastic projectiles simulate the effect of meteoroid strikes in space, permitting scientists to gauge such effects in shaping the vehicles.

Student Dies In Car Crash

George L. Vargas Jr. of Reno, a Stanford University student and nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Vargas of Belvedere, was killed last night when a car carrying him and two other Stanford students overturned on the Bayshore Freeway in East Palo Alto.

Highway patrolmen said the driver, Robert L. Mulford, 18, of Tulsa, Okla., apparently fell asleep at the wheel. Mulford was unhurt. The third student, Walter A. Quinn, 19, of Vallejo, suffered minor injuries.

Young Vargas was a grandson of the late Gov. Fred Balzar of Nevada. He was a pre-law student.

Eight In Air Force To Retire In Ceremonies Tomorrow

Eight officers and men at Hamilton Air Force Base will retire in ceremonies tomorrow.

Retiring are Col. John Richardson, deputy director of civil engineering of the 28th Air Division-SAGE, and Col. Marvin F. Stalder, inspector general of the Sixth Air Force Reserve Region, both with almost 30 years in service.

Lt. Col. Harvid Sager, inspector general of the 28th, will retire with 29 years service. Maj. Charles A. Coullahan, base housing officer, has served 22 years; Capt. Thomas C. Glover Jr., 78th fighter interceptor wing, base operations officer, ends his career with 21 years service.

M/Sgt. James L. Kish of the 28th retires with 20 years service; S/Sgt. Albert Brannen, 78th FIS, 20 years; S/Sgt. Joseph H. O'Neal, 78th Field Maintenance Squadron, 21 years.

Richardson will be awarded the Legion of Merit for his work in civil engineering beginning in 1953.

Sweet Theft

Boy, 11, Treated After Accident

Randall Hericourt, 11, Kentfield School student living at 299 North Almenar Drive, Greenbrae, was making his rounds by bicycle when he ran into the left front fender of a car just halted by Mrs. Stephanie Stella Haber, housewife of 115 Corte Anita, Greenbrae.

California Highway Patrol investigation showed Mrs. Haber had been southbound on Los Cerros Drive at its intersection with Almenar. She said she saw the bicycle coming and skidded to a stop.

The boy was treated at Marin General Hospital.

AN OLD FASHIONED CRADLE, in family of Mrs. Edward E. Ranahan since the middle 1800's will be one of the key attractions at the Anticipation Tea and Fashion Show to be held at Marin General for expectant mothers, Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 9, at 2 p.m. in the annex. Shown admiring it are Mrs. Ralph Nicholson, a model and expectant mother; Mrs. George R. Williams of Mill Valley, in charge of fashions and her daughter, Kimberly who will also model. Pink Ladies are sponsoring the event.

ADMIRING THE toys which will be a feature display at the Anticipation Tea and Fashion Show at Marin General are four Pink Ladies who are sponsoring the event. They are, from left, Mesdames Judson Goodrich, Edward Littman, Arthur Youens and Edward R. Ranahan, general chairman. Attendance is free for the Nov. 9 event. Reservations may be made through Mrs. Ranahan, 132 Van Tassel Court, San Anselmo. (George Wheeler photos)

Club Meet To Feature Exhibit

For the business meeting of the Sausalito Woman's Club on Nov. 3, Mrs. S. C. Stapp, president, has planned an exhibit of special interest to members.

Mrs. Paul P. Hastings, historian and president of the club 30 years ago, will bring the original minutes of the early club years; year by year scrap books and the gifts presented by members will be displayed and labeled. Outstanding among the latter is the handsome Oriental bronze lantern placed near the entrance to the club. In memory of Grace McGregor Robbins, it was a gift from Mr. Robbins and had been purchased by the couple on a trip to the Orient in 1913, the year the club was founded. Another, more recent memorial is the stone garden lantern purchased through a bequest from Irma Darling Pierson, the third president of the club, and placed in the garden in her memory. Participants in the "Jinks" of last March can see pictures taken during the production. The mementos of the club's 47 years should prove nostalgic to old timers and interesting and informative to newcomers.

Mesdames Glenn T. Hall and H. Bowen Wands have been asked to be at the door by Mrs. George W. Quinn, hospitality chairman.

Marin Women

Committees Listed For Tea, Style Show

Complete committee workers have been named by Mrs. Edward E. Ranahan, general chairman for the "Anticipation Tea and Fashion Show" to be held at Marin General Hospital Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock Nov. 9. In charge of the handmade poster invitations are Mesdames Judson Goodrich, Arthur Kanzee and Peter Pell.

Greeting guests at the door of the hospital annex will be Mrs. Russel Chatham, assistant director of volunteers for the Service League which is handling tea arrangements as a volunteer project.

Hospital personnel who are assisting with the coordinating are Mrs. Ellaleigh Bridgeman, Miss Wilda Jane Derryberry, and Mrs. Ida King. Mrs. Bridgeman is supervisor for the obstetrics department at Marin General.

Reservations can be made by contacting Mrs. Edward E. Ranahan, general chairman, at 132 Van Tassel Court, San Anselmo or Mrs. Hans E. Fischel at 107 Brookside Drive, San Anselmo.

Grandmothers Club Installs

Ballot Propositions Ross Council Discussion Topic

Ballot propositions at the Nov. 8 election will be the main topic for discussion at the meeting of Ross Valley Council, Parent-Teacher Association, Tuesday morning, Nov. 1, at Brookside School. Mrs. Courtland Mudge of the Speaker's Bureau of the League of Women Voters will lead the discussion. Mrs. Sam Goldbaum, council president, asks all units to be well-represented and to have their legislation chairman there.

New Blue Bird Group Organized

The girls all live in Corte Madera and attend Neil Cummins School. They decided upon "Nature's Blue Birds" because it reflects their interest in the out-of-doors. Mrs. Polach will be assisted by Mrs. Jim Timossi, co-leader.

Reed District Fair Will Open With Premiere Party On Sunday

Opening with a Premiere Party on Sunday, Oct. 30, the Reed District Book Fair will feature an Authors' Tea on Nov. 6, the Fair's closing date.

Chairman of the Book Fair, an annual event sponsored by the Reed District Parent-Teacher Club, is Mrs. Edwin Sinclair, and the steering committee includes Mesdames Stanley Dick, John Osborn, Richard Adams, Henry Schubart, George Ellman, Stephen Parodi and Newton Wise Jr. Miss Donna Staley, district librarian and Miss Joyce Wilson, eighth grade Reed School teacher are acting in an advisory capacity.

Book Fair chairmen of the four school units are Mesdames George McKegney, Reed; L. L. Iverson, Bel Aire; John Del Mar, Tiburon and Richard Adams, Belvedere.

The week-long exhibit of books, planned at this time for convenient Christmas gift ordering, will start Sunday at Bel Aire School with the Premiere Party from 2 to 5 p.m. Parents and children of the Reed District, as well as the public in general are invited to attend this party for their first inspection of the books available. Held in the Bel Aire School multi-purpose room, it will be co-hostessed by Mesdames A. C. Damazio and George Larson.

Refreshments will be served.

Books will be displayed at Bel Aire from Oct. 30 to Nov. 1, at Tiburon School on Nov. 2 and on Thursday, Nov. 3, the books for the lower grades will be moved to Belvedere School, while upper grade level books will be exhibited at Reed School. From Friday through Sunday, Nov. 6, the entire collection will remain at Reed School.

Mesdames Eric Bellingall and James Contos will co-hostess at the Authors' Tea which will be held Sunday, Nov. 6 at Reed School from 3 to 5 p.m. Marin County authors who will be present are Edward Dolan, William Winter, Barbara Briggs, Sandy Warburg, Marian Owens, Reese Wolfe, Joy De Weese Wehen, Glen Dines, William Ryan, Kenneth Lamott and Mrs. Richard Dakin.

Edward Dolan of San Rafael writes for both children and adults and has published "Pasteur and the Invisible Giants," "Green Universe," "White Battleground," and "Jenner and the Miracle of Vaccine." William Winter, a Belvedere resident and one of America's foremost news analysts, is co-author of "Heart Attack." An expert in the field of international affairs, he is currently lecturing in the Bay Area.

Barbara Briggs, of Belvedere, is working on three books at the present time, for a variety of age groups. She wrote and illustrated "Otter Twins," which was published by David McKay. Sandy Warburg's "The Thinking Book" broke selling records when it appeared in local bookstores. She had just had another book, "Something Special," accepted.

Marian Owens, Mill Valley author of "Peacock Maiden," a Thailand story, has just published "The Magic Paintbrush." Reese Wolfe of Kentfield has written, "The Monkeys have no Tails in Zamboango" and "When the Credit's Low, Order Champagne."

Glen Dines is currently working on a series of historical books for older children and is the author of "The Useful Dragon of Sam Ling Toy," a book with a San Francisco background, "Tiger in a Cherry Tree," "Pitido, the Color-Maker," and for older children he has written "The Fabulous Flying Bicycle" and "The Mysterious Machine." He lives in Sleepy Hollow.

Creator of "Contact" magazine, William Ryan is publisher and co-editor of this quarterly, the largest in America. Previously promotion manager for KPIX in San Francisco, Ryan was at one time with CBS television and with "Popular Mechanics" in Chicago. He established the Tides Bookstore in Sausalito, where he now lives.

A New Yorker contributor, Kenneth Lamott has published two novels, is working on another. He and his family live in Tiburon. Mrs. Richard Dakin's "Scotch Paisano" was judged one of the best 25 books published in the last 25 years dealing with California history. She has also written "The Lives of William Hartnell," and "The Perennial Adventure."

The public is invited to the authors' tea and to the book displays, which will feature adult books as well as children's selections.

Eben Neal Baty, author of "Citizen Abroad" will be present at the Premiere Party Sunday, Oct. 30, which will open the annual Book Fair of the Reed District Parent-Teacher Club. The party will be held in the multi-purpose room of the Bel Aire School from 2 to 5 p.m. and Baty will speak at 3 p.m.

"Citizen Abroad" is a compliation of comments and observations following an extended trip to 23 countries. Anyone interested is cordially invited to attend.

Tamalpais Temple To Host Conclave

Tamalpais Temple 129, Pythian Sisters of San Rafael will be hostess to District 8 at a convention on Nov. 1.

Georgia Cole is in charge of the program. Dinner will be served in the social hall of the San Rafael Presbyterian Church.

Helen Hickman will preside during the evening session at which time there will be an initiation ceremony.

Dinner reservations may be made with Ardell Bowers.

Novato Whist Party

A turkey whist party will be given tomorrow night at 8 o'clock at the IDESI Hall in Novato by Luso-American Fraternal Federation. Mrs. Joseph Secco is chairman of the committee.

Senior Citizens Are Staging Bazaar To Benefit Center

A three-day bazaar which started yesterday and will continue through Saturday has been arranged by the hostesses at the Senior Citizens Center, 1825 Fourth Street in San Rafael.

Purpose of the affair will be to raise funds to help the Marin Volunteers meet the expenses of the Center.

Especially featured will be gift items for Christmas giving including aprons of all sizes and descriptions and gifts for the baby and all his friends and relations according to Mrs. Edith Foran, chairman of the hostesses. Homebaked food will also be for sale.

Chairman of the event are Mesdames George Bennett and Edna Prawn. The Center hostesses who are assisting are Mesdames Lillian Croft, Ruth Long, Leda Savage, Edith Kaplan, Maxine Gillett, Kay Stevenson, Alice Kinsel, Mabel Carr, Mabel Leloran, Eva Lazarus, Nellie Vance, Anita Terkelson, Lois Foy Estelle Smith and Miss Ethel Bryce.

In addition to hostessing Mrs. Smith is also chairman of the Center's Needlework Guild. The work of the Seniors will be on display tomorrow at the annual ingathering tea of the Guild.

The seniors are very community minded and have helped many organizations such as the Red Cross and the tuberculosis association. At present they are anxious to find ways to raise money to keep the Center open.

The Volunteers, a group of young women devoted to maintaining the Center, have organized a Thrift Shop in the Center Basement, proceeds of which are used for rent and utilities. The shop is open Monday through Friday 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Surprise Shower Fetes Blue Birds

The mothers of the girls gave the shower, and the gifts to each girl was creative materials, such as crayons, scissors, paste, pencils, which they will use in the group projects.

San Rafael Hospital Auxiliary Marks Its Second Anniversary

Congratulations on its second anniversary and the work it is doing came to members of the Women's Auxiliary of San Rafael General Hospital at a meeting Monday.

Extending these congratulations was the hospital administrator, John H. Prescott, who said, "The patients enjoy seeing you. They like having you around. You are doing a wonderful job."

The administrator also praised the group's excellent training program and its effectiveness in public relations for the hospital.

The meeting marked the second anniversary of the auxiliary, which was organized in October 1958, the same year the 55-year-old hospital became a non-profit institution. After the business meeting the volunteers were guests at a party, complete with "birthday cake," in the dining room.

Mrs. C. Bruce Greene was named president at the election of new officers which featured the business part of the session. She succeeds Mrs. Lawrence P. McNear, who with Mrs. Leiton J. Elder and Mrs. Walter H. Lethbridge organized the group two years ago.

Mrs. E. Neele Johnston was elected treasurer, succeeding Mrs. Fred F. Enemark, and Mrs. Lethbridge will continue as secretary. A new vice president to succeed Mrs. Elder will be named at a later date.

New committee chairmen named at the same time were Mrs. J. A. Wruburton, historian, and Mrs. R. J. Scherini, decorations.

Recognition for hours served went to Mrs. McNear, 500 hours; Mrs. Elder, 300 hours; Mrs. Willis E. Ball and Mrs. George M. Henderson, 200 hours, and Mrs. Donald L. Walling, 100 hours.

Grand total of the volunteers' service to the hospital is now well over 5,000 hours, according to Mrs. Lethbridge.

Mrs. McNear reported that response to the auxiliary's latest project, the Remembrance Fund, has been very generous. The fund was established in observance of the hospital's 55th anniversary in September. It is administered by the Auxiliary for the benefit of the hospital.

Other topics discussed were the cook book, "Favorite Fare," to be reprinted in time for Christmas giving under auspices of the auxiliary, and the holiday flower arranging demonstration by Katherine Eubanks to be co-sponsored by the group on Nov. 16. Mrs. Eldred Hillis is chairman for the Auxiliary. Also taking part will be volunteer groups from Ross and Marin General Hospitals.

Water Repellent

If it's too warm for a raincoat, try a water repellent blouse. The washable blouses come in the classic, button-down pullover shirt style so dear to the heart of a coed.

Cornhuskers Plan Halloween Dance

The fifth Saturday Halloween Square Dance Party to be held tomorrow at McNear's Barn starting at 8 p.m. will be a costume party. While costumes are optional, it is hoped that most of the guests will turn out in costume, as there will be prizes awarded.

Featured caller for the evening is Benny Walker of Napa. All square dancers are invited to attend. There will be a special treat of "surprise entertainment" and refreshments.

Mongolian Goat

Paris designers' newest fur fad is Mongolian goat, a shaggy long hair fur shown most frequently in pure white or gray. Put a model in hat and coat of this fur and she looks like a well-curried mop.

Jolly Roger Chapter Tells Tale Of Halloween Witch At Rickey's

For the "witch who has a closet full of broomsticks and nothing to wear," the Jolly Roger Chapter of the Children's Home Society supplied the fashionable and timely answers on Tuesday at Rickey's as it spun "The Tale of the Halloween Witch."

As the outstanding organization of the week, the Jolly Roger members pointed up the tremendous importance of the work done throughout California by the Children's Home Society, the state's only private adoption agency, and the more than 125 auxiliaries such as Jolly Roger who work through the year to assist it.

Brewing the mabic potions on Tuesday were eight glamorous Jolly Roger members who modeled a stunning collection of fashions from a San Rafael and Novato shop for modern witches who want their wardrobe to have more than a skeleton!

Unmasked for the holidays ahead were casual coordinates, harmonious knits, colorful corduroy, handsome city coats, and a tingle of sparkling late day looks that clearly said "Be-witched."

Trick or treat was not forgotten. Helen Gray dipped into her 1960 bag of tricks to bring out handsome ropes of colorful beads, brilliant jeweled pins, smart bags, and dashing millinery to add the finishing touch.

For the witch whose locks need taming, a San Rafael French salon of beauty created a Halloween halo for each Jolly Roger model to ride from All Saints Eve through the holidays.

Fashion "trick or treats" for: "Football Frolics," Mrs. Marshall McCoy carrying the ball for Tabak in coordinates of gray and red with snappy red short coat, and high, handsome hat.

PUMPKIN WOOL

"Luncheon Spice," a serving of pumpkin wool created in a stunning coachman's coat for Mrs. William Hislop, the important collar, double buttons, and tunic over skirt fashion notes.

"Dinner Date" in Johnny Herbert's emerald green wool jersey, the wide, square neck leading to long, lovely sleeves, a wrapped cummerlund, and a graceful skirt, plus Mrs. Richard Colombo.

HOLIDAY DANCE

"Hostess at Home," a picture in turquoise velvet from tip to toe, Mrs. Ralph Nattress, sleek trim taper, an elegant, long-sleeved tunic and shocking pink scarf for accent.

Next week Fashion Focus says "Cheers, It's a Colorful Fall" to honor the Italian Catholic Federation of Petaluma. Reservations may be made by calling Rickey's.

Short P-TA Halloween Party Set

The annual Halloween luncheon and parade planned by Short School Parent-Teacher Association will be held at the school on Oct. 31, starting at 12 m. This is an event eagerly looked forward to by the children and parents alike. The children are allowed to wear their costumes to school.

Lunch will be served to first through fourth graders in their classrooms, and to mothers and younger children in the multi-purpose room.

Following lunch the children will parade around the grounds and compete for such "honors" as "the scariest," "the prettiest," "the funniest," and "the most original." The teachers will judge and award ribbons. Before returning to class all children will receive a Halloween treat.

AAUW Parties To Conclude With Coffee On Tuesday

Concluding a series of "coffee parties" to honor new members, will be Marin branch, AAUW's Nov. 1 coffee at the home of Mrs. Robert Armington in San Rafael. The informal gatherings have been held throughout October to acquaint new members with each other and with the AAUW program.

Party hostesses have been Mesdames Robert I. Christensen, Fred D. Stribling, John Schmitz and Armington. Assisting the hostesses were Mesdames Hugh Marchant, Robert Flanders, Glen Sleezer, Harold DePue and Stanley Hamilton.

New member guests included Mesdames Richard Laws, Winfield Salter, Ross Shade, Joseph Leach, James Swinch, John Wasley, Curtis McLeod, Leonard Clayton, Lafay Stapp, Hartwell Jewel, Henry Aigner, Hoeter Nelson, Gerald Townsend, Paul Bradley, Raymond Kaufman, Norman Walter, Albert Lewis, Emily Buddenbaum, Martin Fredericks, Charles Haddix, Eugene Gates, Robert Marquis, James Smith, Allan Vandevert, Gilbert Searle, Phillip Lint, Frederick Jandrey, A. J. Ungersma, H. B. Sturgeon, Parker Archer, Miss Melanie Brown and Miss Margaret Scyster.

Jane Nickols Well-Received In Dramatization

Jane Nickols, singer-actress, gave a musical dramatization of Rodgers and Hammerstein's "King and I" to a large and enthusiastic audience in the auditorium of the Parish House of St. John's Church, Ross, Tuesday, under the sponsorship of St. Mary's Chapter of Episcopal Churchwomen.

Mrs. Nickols has done all the editing and re-writing of the script herself in order to condense the original script into an hour's presentation—without losing the story line, humor or "color" of the story. Her "set" consisted of a bamboo screen, effectively draped with gold and rose brocade material, a small teakwood bench and a low round table.

Mrs. Norma Porter of Novato, piano accompanist for Mrs. Nickols, was also applauded for her artistry during the performance.

After the performance, Mrs. Nickols and Mrs. Porter attended with the members and guests a tea party in the Fireside Room of the Parish House. Mrs. E. C. Jaros was chairman-of-the-day, assisted by the following tea hostesses: Mesdames Farwell Hill, E. N. Goddard, George M. Tatum, Julius Jacobson, Locke Haney, Francis G. Burt and Frederick W. Wilhelmi. Mrs. Charles S. Kilburn was in charge of the stage and Mrs. E. S. Davids was publicity chairman.

Tobaggan Hat

One of the most copied Paris fashions is the toboggan hat. The ribbed, knit, pull-on which many of us remember from our own school days showed repeatedly as the elegant topper for suits at the house of Christian Dior during the late July openings. Now, variations of it in the whole range of bright shades and white populate hat bars from coast to coast.

Clans On March

The clans are on the march. Plaids in infinite variety run through fall sports collections, from jumper dresses to pedal pushers. It's a practical idea for the teenager to choose a plaid—it doesn't need to be authentic—and feature it in several pieces in a school wardrobe.

ALMANAC

The morning star is Mars.

The evening stars are Venus, Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1886, the Statue of Liberty was dedicated on Bedloe's Island in New York Harbor.

A thought for today: French poet Alphonse de Lamartine said: "Limited in his nature, infinite in his desires, man is a fallen god who remembers the heavens."

Planning Ahead For Halloween Has Resulted In Big Improvement

Many people have been working hard for Halloween. Hats off to them today.

First, let's thank the carnival chairman. She was appointed nearly a year ago. She's labored ever since. She set up her committees. She planned the concessions, movies, refreshments. She hasn't been home very much the last few weeks. Her husband hardly knows her.

She has a thousand things on her mind. She'll be a wreck when the carnival is over, but a happy wreck.

Next, the fathers. They took time off from work. They brought tools, lumber, canvas, burlap. They built booths. They arranged a chamber of horrors. They set up hot dog stands. They'll be on hand for the big night, working harder than ever.

We can't forget the principal and the teachers. They helped with the plans. They found ways to assist the committees. They were able to go on teaching children, in spite of the excitement. They'll be present for the festivities. We can depend on them, always.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Do you approve of 'trick or treat'? I don't like little beggars."

N.L.I.

Radio Missing From Ted's Taxi

Charles Ted Cohen, who operates Ted's Taxi in Tiburon, appealed today for return of a two-way radio stolen from his cab Tuesday night or Wednesday morning.

The $200 radio and microphone "is my bread and butter," said Cohen. "I depend on it for my living."

Drake Magazine Editor Selected

Debbie Rossman of 2 Meadow Way, Fairfax, has been named editor of the Sir Francis Drake High School annual literary magazine, Insight, adviser Albert Lavin announced.

Linda Gregg of Forest Knolls was named poetry editor, and Robert Holland and Peggy Lilienthal, both of San Anselmo, associate editors.

Lavin said the art editor, business manager and two associate editors had not yet been chosen.

Tape Recorder Stolen From Radio Station

Old Tales Can Err

NEW YORK (UPI) — There's some truth in old wives' tales, but they're not an infallible guide for investors, according to Standard and Poor's Corp., investment advisory firm.

The old advice to buy stock and put it away, for instance, was: "Good advice — if you bought shares of General Motors 40 years ago. Poor advice —if you liked Stutz Bearcat stock."

No Quorum

A meeting of the board of the Marin Municipal Water District has been scheduled for next Monday at 8 p.m. at the district office because of failure to achieve a quorum for the regular session Wednesday.

IS MARIN BEST CITY?

Tense Moments Due In Contest

By RANDALL GOULD

Marin County Administrator D. A. Jensen expects the 10 minutes between 9:15 and 9:25 a.m. of Nov. 15 to be about the most intense such space in his life.

Within that time, before a jury of 12 headed by Dr. George H. Gallup, in Phoenix, Ariz., Jensen must punch across a compact argument giving reasons why Marin County deserves to be declared a winner in the annual national "All-America Cities Contest." Sponsors are the National Municipal League and Look magazine.

He will base his talk on a document which already has won Marin a place in 22 finishers out of an original field of 103. Illustrating it will be two exhibits and a five-minute color movie prepared with the volunteer help of Jensen's neighbor, Emmett E. Smith of 212 Helen's Lane, Mill Valley.

The movie will portray the glories of Marin, along with brief but significant scenes of subdevelopers' destruction of trees and hills as indication of the battle scene.

Jensen's talk, supported also by the Civic Center model and a large architect's drawing of Marin City redevelopment, will show how an estimated 7,500 Marin citizens have fought to preserve natural beauties.

"I'm sure we can win a place among the 11 top 'all-American' cities and counties," says Jensen, "but I'm not really looking forward to the job of boiling our story down to a short 10 minutes."

Jensen has already fought several sizeable battles to advance the matter to the finals stage. One has been against time and space, in the matter of the Civic Center model; it's in Milan, Italy, for display by request of the federal government which will pay air freight costs to get it to Phoenix after close of a Milan exposition Nov. 5.

Jensen said in his presentation that citizen action to preserve Marin's natural beauty dated to William Kent Sr.'s donation in 1908 of Muir Woods National Monument. He listed 10 other major milestones and then under "recent action for which entry is submitted" gave three more:

1. Government Center, including the point that this will provide the first government building ever constructed by Frank Lloyd Wright.

2. Marin City Redevelopment, which Jensen regards as unique in the United States.

3. Development of Land for Recreation Use. Under this are listed purchase of 700 acres of Richardson Bay tidelands by a citizens non-profit group with development of a wild life refuge; acquisition of parts of the Tiburon Naval Net Depot; two public boat launching facilities; Richardson Bay Master Plan with acquisition of state tidelands.

"The citizen action has in effect been a desperate rush against time," Jensen said, "to preserve open space beauty and some wilderness before complete urbanization takes over and destroys Marin's unique physical attributes."

All the citizens projects met with "organized opposition" of one form or another, said Jensen, with accusations of wasting taxpayers' money and threats of court actions.

Jensen recited planned future accomplishments including the prospect of a 53,000-acre Point Reyes National Seashore, as well as completion of the Civic Center and Marin City Redevelopment, development of present recreation areas and construction of marina and yacht harbor on Richardson Bay.

He listed 27 organizations and groups in order of contribution, starting with the board of supervisors, and the Marin Conservation League.

Asked to name three active leaders, Jensen listed the five supervisors followed by the following private citizens:

Mrs. Norman B. Livermore Sr., Dr. Joel F. Gustafson, Harold Stockstad, James M. Fletcher, Ernest Schallinger, Mrs. Bertram K. Dunshee and William Kent Jr.

Explaining why Marin, a county, entered in a city contest, Jensen said that though Marin has 10 incorporated cities "county government has assumed a great deal of the leadership in the cooperative growth and character of the community."

He went on:

"Although there may appear to be little similarity between a redevelopment project, a Civic Center, and development of recreational areas, they are all part of the same goals of the citizens in the community. These goals are primarily to preserve for Marin County the beauty that has made it unique and to provide for orderly development in a manner that will make it a beautiful place in which to live."

Egypt's Cotton Exports Are Up

CAIRO (UPI) — Egypt's cotton exports are up from 4,437,449 kantars last season to 5,921,666 this year. A kantar is 99.05 pounds.

Russia remains the largest buyer and Czechoslovakia is second with purchases of 978,811 kantars and 720,455 kantars, respectively.

But only 49.1 per cent of cotton exports went to the Communist bloc this year in comparison with 61.7 per cent last year. Western countries took 28.5 per cent of the total exports this year in comparison with 24.6 per cent last year.

School Business Big Operation

SALINA, Kan. (AP) — "Dad, why do we have to get an operation to go to school?"

"What gave you that idea?"

Revamping Finished At Service Station

The old building has been replaced by a new one housing a two-car unit with facilities for minor auto repair and tuneup work. Jandura, who has leased the station since September, 1959, lives at 41 Locke Lane, with his wife, Miriam, and three boys, Mark, 9, Fred, 5, and Frankie, 4.

Novato Toastmasters Install Officers

Lewis D. Farr was installed as president of the Novato Toastmasters Club 1712 last night. He succeeds Peter Forrest.

Other officers installed were Raymond King of Marinwood, educational vice president; William Wilson of Novato, administrative vice president; Ronald Lord of Novato, secretary-treasurer, and Joseph Bendik, sergeant at arms.

Methodist Families Dinner Scheduled

The Women's Society of Christian Service will sponsor a dinner for Methodist families tonight at 7 o'clock at the San Rafael Methodist Church, announced pastor Donald H. Baldwin.

"The Responsible Christian Citizen," a panel discussion revealing the comparative values on issues and platforms of the forthcoming election, will be presented, said Rev. Baldwin.

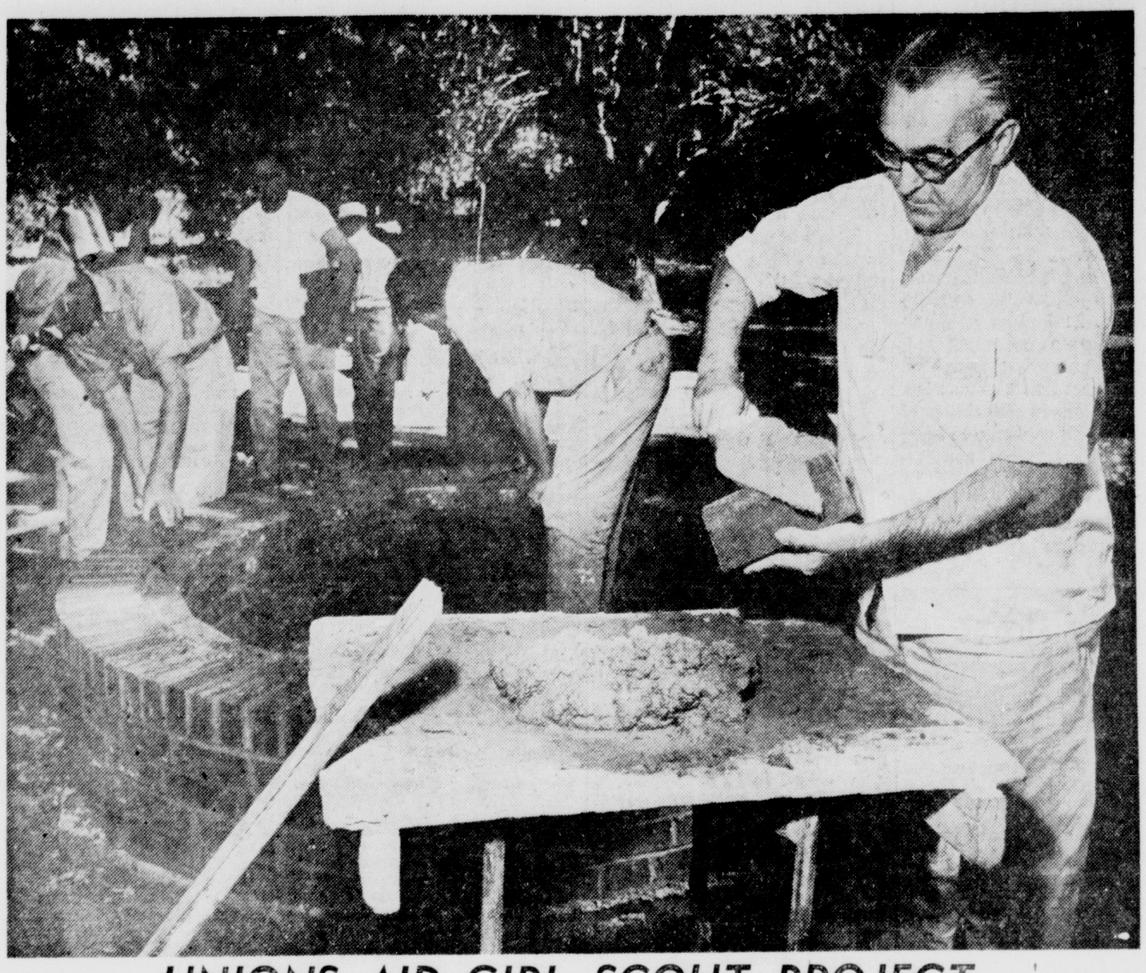
India Exports First Iron

NEW DELHI (AP) — India, a country that received its start on industrialization from Britain, has shipped its first order of pig iron to London.

A consignment of 2,000 tons recently sailed and another 6,500 tons have been ordered by Britain. India has exported iron to Japan and Pakistan in the past.

Lapidary Exhibitors

More than 15 Marin County lapidary experts have sent exhibits to the 25th annual Gem and Mineral Show tomorrow and Sunday at Scottish Rite Auditorium, Van Ness Avenue and Sutter Street in San Francisco.



UNIONS AID GIRL SCOUT PROJECT

Members of the Bricklayers and Hodcarriers Unions pitch in as volunteers to finish the campfire circle and barbecue pits at Arequipa, near Fairfax, for use by the Marin County Girl Scout Council. Adult volunteers from the council have cleared the land and laid the cement bases. Troops will soon be using Arequipa for camping overnight. Here, foreground, Jack Sward, brick contractor, and Walter Kurz, business representative for Local 7 Bricklayers, put final touches on campfire circle.

Former Servicemen Told Of Rights

Former service personnel ineligible for veterans' benefits, because of other than honorable or general discharge from the service, have one year to apply for correction of alleged error or injustice, Veterans Service Officer, W. P. (Doc) Duhamel announced today.

Applications for correction must be filed prior to Oct. 25, 1961 or within three years of discovery of the alleged error or injustice—whichever is the later date, Duhamel said.

Miller To Talk

Rep. Clement W. Miller of Corte Madera, Democratic candidate for Congress, will discuss issues in the campaign and answer questions at 8:30 p.m. Sunday at the Marin Jewish Community Center in San Rafael. The program is open to the public.

Here's A Goose That Isn't Silly

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—It does not take much to keep Junior happy. She has lived at a service station since she was abandoned there.

Marin Estates Delays Landscaping Day

Landscaping day, a tree planting project of the Marin Estates Home Owners of Corte Madera, has been indefinitely postponed, according to project chairman John Maurer.

Maurer said yesterday that he received a call from the University of California at Davis, informing him the trees were not ready to be planted yet, and would be delayed until some time in late December or early January.

Tomales Halloween Parade Scheduled

Tomales Elementary School children in the guise of goblins, ghosts, witches and tramps will trek through Tomales Monday at 7 p.m. in the school's Halloween parade.

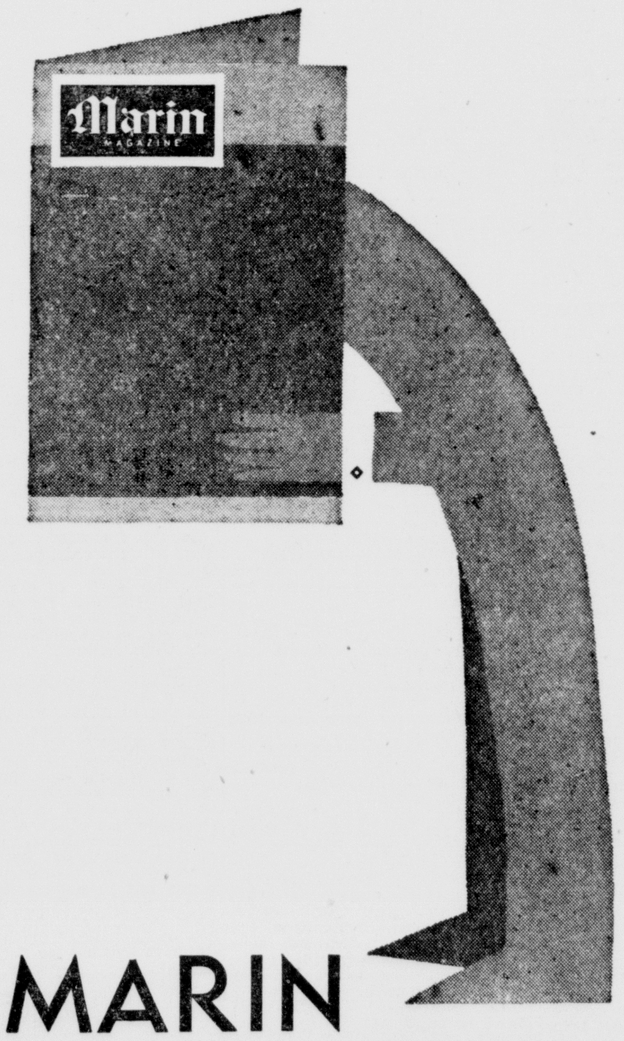
Third Quarter Wage Reports Are Due

California unemployment insurance wage reports and contribution returns for the third quarter of 1960 must be filed by Monday, employers were reminded today by Charles J. Brady, auditor-in-charge for the State Department of Employment in Marin County.

Penalty and interest will be charged for filing after the deadline. Employers may reach Brady at 807 E Street, San Rafael for assistance.



MARIN MAGAZINE

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY IN THE INDEPENDENT-JOURNAL

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

A WEEK OF GOOD READING

PROFILE OF THE WEEK—Ernest (Ernie) Nunes is a boat building man from a boat building family. Both his father and his uncle were pioneer California boat builders. And now in a Sausalito boatyard Ernie carries on the family tradition. He is, however, far more than just a boat builder. He is the designer of some of the world's finest craft. In tomorrow's Marin Magazine Independent-Journal reporter Dorothy Slattery will take you on a visit to the Nunes Brothers Boat Works where you will learn about the career of this interesting Marinite and why, to him, boats are both a trade and a hobby.

ONE OF A SERIES — Each week an Independent-Journal staff writer explores the character, achievements and human side of one of Marin's outstanding personalities — some of whom are all too little known by their neighbors.

TB Association Names Groups

Committee appointments for the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn. have been announced by Mrs. Helen Hoxie of Ross.

Dr. J. Lyman Hurlburt of Larkspur was named chairman of the tuberculosis control committee; Mrs. L. W. Waldon of San Anselmo, public information-health education committee; N. A. Ballantine of Kentfield, program appraisal and planning committee, and Mrs. Hoxie, executive committee. Mrs. H. Corwin Hinshaw of Belvedere will continue to head the patients services committee.

The committees will study the tuberculosis problem in Marin and submit recommendations to the board of directors.

Drunken Driver Draws $263 Fine

Mrs. Grace May Colvin, 62, of San Rafael, wife of the West Coast manager of a watch company, drew a $263 fine and one year probation for drunken driving.

On Oct. 13, she drove to the San Rafael bus depot about 8:30 a.m. to pick up her maid. Her car struck a railroad wigwag signal, then backed into a parked car.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Municipal Court also ordered Mrs. Colvin's driving privileges restricted for the next 90 days.

Florist Named To Directorship

Larkspur florist Katherine Eubanks has been appointed to the board of directors of the California State Florists' Assn. She is one of two women in the state on the board this year, and will serve on the membership committee.

Mrs. Eubanks will participate in an all-day design school this week at the San Francisco Flower Mart.

Now completing her two-year term as district representative for the national Florists' Telegraph Delivery Assn., she will install officers of the local association in Santa Clara tonight.

Loan Firm Seeks Change Of Name

Sausalito Savings and Loan Assn. wants to change its name.

The California savings and loan commissioner will hold a hearing on the name change application Nov. 7 at 10 a.m. at 30 Tenth Street, San Francisco.

The firm seeks to change its name to Homestead Savings and Loan Assn.

Barbara Burt, secretary to the firm's president, Lawrence Wissberg, said the request was made because the firm hopes to expand and feels the proposed new name would be more suitable.

Safety Awards Due Employees

Three safety awards were given yesterday to employees of Pacific Gas and Electric Co.'s North Bay Division for working a million man-hours without a lost-time injury.

Presentations were made at a luncheon at Rickey's Rancho Rafael, Ignacio. A company award for the 1,090 employees of the North Bay Division was accepted by Elias S. Day, manager, who also received one for 228 employees of the division's gas department. This department also won a safety citation from the American Gas Assn.

The record of the division was achieved between Dec. 12, 1959 and June 22, 1960, while the gas department record was from March 18, 1958 to July 15 of this year.

Christian Science Lecture Planned

The First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Belvedere, will have as guest lecturer, Neil H. Bowles of Atlanta, Ga., tomorrow at 3 p.m.

Bowles, a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship, will speak on the topic: "Christian Science: Its Revelation of God's Healing and Protecting Law."

Music At Service

A worship service with music provided by a student quartet from the Baptist College of El Cerrito will be held at the Valley Baptist Church in San Rafael Sunday at 7 p.m., announced Rev. Stanley Walsh, pastor.

Felon Acquitted Of Knife Charge

San Quentin convict Robert De La Rosa, 24, won an acquittal Wednesday in Marin Superior Court from the charge that he used a knife during a fight with another convict in prison last April 8.

A jury of three men and nine women (three of them were pulled off the street in San Rafael for jury duty) heard the case before Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. They deliberated for about three hours and found De La Rosa innocent of knife possession.

The convict was defended by Public Defender Peter Allen Smith.

A San Quentin correctional officer said he saw two men at a distance fighting with knives, but they threw away the weapons. De La Rosa had several stab wounds on his body, and the other convict showed one bruise on his mouth.

Mrs. Booth Recovering

Mrs. Carmel Booth, former San Anselmo city councilman who moved to Lake County, is reported recovering from influenza at her new home in Nice.

Bids are required for the entire work described herein.

Plans and specifications may be seen at the office of the State Highway Engineer at Sacramento, at the offices of the District Engineers at Los Angeles and San Francisco, and at the office of the District Engineer of the district in which the work is situated.

No bid will be considered unless it is made on a blank form furnished by the State Highway Engineer and is made in accordance with the provisions of the Standard Specifications and special provisions. Each bidder must be licensed and also prequalified as required by law.

phw	per hour worked	pdw	per day worked
php	per hour paid	pdp	per day paid
phw/p	per hour worked or paid	pdw/p	per day worked or paid

Employer payments other than those itemized herein, as defined in Section 1773.1 of the Labor Code, are to be paid in accordance with the terms of the collective bargaining agreement applicable to the type or classification of the workmen or mechanics employed on the project.

Overtime, Sundays and Holidays—not less than one and one-half (1½) times the basic hourly rate plus applicable employer payments. The holidays upon which such rates shall be paid shall be all holidays recognized in the collective bargaining agreement applicable to the particular craft, classification or type of workman employed on the project.

Copies of all collective bargaining agreements relating to the work as set forth in the aforementioned Labor Code are on file and available for inspection in the office of the Department of Industrial Relations, Division of Labor Statistics and Research.

Attention is directed to Section 7-1.01G of the Standard Specifications providing for employment of apprentices on the work. Every such apprentice shall be paid the standard wage paid to apprentices under the regulations of the trade at which he is employed. Information relative to employment of apprentices shall be obtained from the Director of the Department of Industrial Relations, who is the Administrative Officer of the California Apprenticeship Council.

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 1770 of the Labor Code of the State of California, the Department of Public Works has ascertained the general prevailing rate of wages and employer payments for health and welfare, vacation, pension and similar purposes in the county in which the work is to be done to be as follows:

Stenstrom Buick Clearance Sale

'58 Chev. $1,150
A 4-Dr. Biscayne Sedan with Powerglide, radio, heater, w/w tires and many other Chevvy extras. All white with attractive turquoise interior. Average selling price of $1280 but we'll sell for $1150 this week.

'56 Buick . . . . $ 895

'56 Plymouth . . $ 795
A Savoy hardtop coupe in jet black with a white top. Original interior shows practically no wear at all. A V-8 engine with automatic transmission, radio, heater, w/w tires and many extras. Original owner put only 35,000 miles on it before trading to us on new Buick convert. Average selling price is $995 but we'll sell for $795.

'55 Buick . . . . $ 695
Two to choose from here. One is a Super Riviera hardtop coupe with power steering and all the extras. Full leather seats. The other is a Special Riviera Hardtop coupe with Dynaflow, and all the Buick features. Average selling price on these cars is $895 but we'll sell for $695 this week.

Invicta Convertible
$1,000 Off

This is a Stenstrom Buick company car that only had three months use. It has 1,100 actual miles on it.
All arctic white with white nylon top & full red-white leather interior. Not a scratch on this beautiful convertible that's about as close to new as you can find. All the luxury equipment—power steering, brakes, Dynaflow, radio, heater, w. w. tires and many others.
This car has never been licensed and carries our full new-car guarantee just like one off the floor.

LeSabre 4-Door
$800 Off

A company car that we've used here for the whole year. It's an Ivy League green with spotless matching interior.
It has power steering, power brakes, Dynaflow, radio, heater, w. w. tires and all the extras.
This car has slightly over 8,000 miles and carries our new car guarantee. Like the convertible above—it has never been licensed before. We've just installed a brand new set of U. S. Royal tires on this car so it's as new as we can make it.

Water Bonds Show Delayed; Mrs. FDR On

A special program on the state water bond issue to be voted upon by Californians in next month's election, has been postponed until Nov. 7, eve of the election, at 8 p.m., officials of KQED-TV (Channel 9) have announced.

The program, to feature a pro and con debate on the water bonds, was originally scheduled by Channel 9 for 8 o'clock this evening.

The station said the postponement was made necessary by a delay in the completion of microwave relay facilities between KQED and KVIE of Sacramento which are to be used for the first time in the water bond program.

To be heard in its place tonight at 8 will be a "Prospects of Mankind" program, filmed in England, with Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt presiding over a panel of European leaders who will discuss "European Unity: Obstacles and Goals."

Lagunitas Board Likes Sketches

The addition will include five classrooms, one of which will be a combination science room, a multi-purpose room and related facilities. It is scheduled for completion by the beginning of the 1961-62 school year.

The board also changed its next meeting date from Nov. 2 to Nov. 4.

Mill Valley Sets Library Display

The Mill Valley Public Library will display through mid-November more than 100 books and pamphlets used by the Mill Valley school district in the elementary grades, librarian Dorothy Thomas said today.

The exhibit includes "Language for Daily Use," from the series which covers grammar, punctuation and composition; "Building Better English," the seventh and eighth grade texts, and the relatively new Scott-Forseman Co. "Seeing Through Arithmetic" books.

Supervisors Delay Decision On Land At Alto Roadway

Reclassification of six parcels of land at various locations northwest and northeast of Alto Interchange because of changed conditions created by freeway construction was argued at some length before the Marin County Board of Supervisors but decision was put over to Nov. 1 pending first-hand examination of the sites.

Among complications which arose was contention by an attorney, L. B. Fleischman, that such change would down-grade property values in a way laying the county open to suit for damages.

He said that his client, Robert Kelly, had made "heavy investments" assuming one type of zoning and that great losses might be caused by change.

The planning commission had recommended change from C-1-H, which would allow apartment construction, to conform with the one-family residential surroundings.

Marin Disarm Group Planning Walk For Peace

Marin proponents of disarmament will drive in caravan to San Francisco tomorrow to take a walk, which they hope will be in the direction of peace.

The Marin group will assemble on San Rafael's Lindaro Street near Carpenters Hall at 10 a.m., then driving to the San Francisco Opera House to participate in a "peace walk" to Union Square for a disarmament rally.

The walk will start at 1:30 p.m., the rally at 2 p.m., all under sponsorship of the American Friends Service Committee, the Committee for Sane Nuclear Policy, Acts for Peace, and the San Francisco Chapter of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom.

Jordan Dinner Planned Nov. 10

A testimonial dinner will be held for County Counsel Leland H. Jordan on Nov. 10 at the Meadow Club in Fairfax.

Jordan will leave his county post on Nov. 15 to join the San Rafael legal firm of Bagshaw, Schaal, Martinelli and Weissich.

Asst. County Counsel E. Warren McGuire announced that a "no host" cocktail party will start at 7 p.m., followed by dinner at 8. Reservations must be made by Nov. 7.

Hospital Board Told Expenses For Three Months

Marin General Hospital payroll and general expenses totaled $478,971 from July 1 to Sept. 30, Administrator S. Ames Pence told the board of directors Tuesday night.

The revenue for the current fiscal year was $6,485, Pence said, representing 1.3 per cent of the operating expense.

Ninety per cent occupancy was recorded for the month of September with 168 babies born during the month in Marin. All of the county was represented with 177 patients from San Rafael, 120 from Southern Marin, 43 from North Marin, 11 from Central Marin and seven from the coastal area of the county. Twenty-nine patients from outside of Marin were hospitalized during the month.

Garbage of Phoenix, Ariz., soon will be sold as a soil conditioner similar to peat moss. The city has built a processing plant that will turn refuse into a useful product.

'Pinocchio' Draws Kids In Sausalito

Director James Robinson said the play, using five sets designed by Gene Pellegrini and special lighting effects by Carol Junker, is aimed at children in the 4- to 12-year-old age bracket.

HALLOWEENING FOR A CAUSE—Starting out with milk cartons and in Halloween costumes, as they will Monday night to "trick or treat for UNICEF" are (from top) Christopher Marlowe, 4; Heidi Schuyt, 6; Spencer Schuyt, 4, and Derek Schuyt, 6, all of the Villa Real subdivision in East San Rafael. Starting them on their way is Mrs. Melvin Marlowe of 50 Arguello Circle. (Independent-Journal photo)

Doorbells To Be Rung For Children

The cause is the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF).

Mrs. Eric Moeller, president of the Marin Chapter of the American Assn. for the United Nations, announced the following church groups are taking part in sponsoring the collection:

Mill Valley Episcopal Church of Our Saviour, Mill Valley Methodist Church, Westminster to Presbyterian Church, Marin City Presbyterian Church, Belvedere Presbyterian Church, St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Belvedere Congregational Church, Unitarian Church of Marin, San Geronimo Valley Community Presbyterian Church, Jewish Congregational Sunday School.

Also participating will be Greenbrae Brownies, Ross Valley 4H Club, and YMCA.

Funds collected will be turned over by area chairmen on Tuesday to the First National Bank in San Rafael. Mrs. James Dunlap and Mrs. Maria Weintke, from the AAUN, will be at the bank during the day to receive collections.

Loma Verde and Pacheco Schools are joining for a Halloween costume parade and carnival from 4 to 8 p.m. at Pacheco School. Mrs. Warren Tracy and Mrs. John Pindell, Parent-Teacher Assn. presidents, will be in charge of UNICEF booths there.

MARIN MAILING TAX BILLS OUT

The County of Marin—this year collecting taxes for eight cities and itself—began mailing out tax bills this week.

It is collecting taxes for two additional cities this year—San Rafael and Sausalito. Deadline for payment of the first installment is Dec. 10. The second installment is due by April 10, 1961.

Of the 10 cities in the county, only Fairfax and San Anselmo are still sending out their own tax bills.

Elected To Group

Transit Wind Tunnel Tests 50% Complete

Wind tunnel tests on models of the Golden Gate Bridge to determine the feasibility of rapid transit addition are now more than 50 per cent completed, directors of the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District were told yesterday.

Indications are, the board was advised, that the work can be completed by the end of the year as had been previously planned.

The board voted formal authority of a contract transfer to Carl H. Gronquist, associate of the late D. B. Steinman, who was originally retained to carry out the tests but who died Aug. 22. Gronquist had been doing the actual test work.

FELINES FROM TEXAS

Big Marin Cat Show Starts Tomorrow

Cats from as far away as Texas will compete in the ninth annual championship show of the Marin County Cat Fanciers tomorrow and Sunday in the Corte Madera Recreation Center.

Four longhairs—two of them grand champions—have been entered by Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Babbitt of San Antonio.

In addition to the Texas felines, there will be more than 200 other cats and kittens from all over California and from Nevada.

The showroom will be open to the public from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. both days. Exhibitors, show committee members and judges will have a dinner at 7 p.m. tomorrow at Sabella's.

Proceeds of the show, which is presented under Cat Fanciers' Assn., Inc., sanction, will go to the Marin County Humane Society.

Suspect Pleads Guilty To Thefts

Gene Leroy Stark, 22 of San Francisco, suspected of breaking into at least five schools and a church in Marin last December and January, pleaded innocent Wednesday to six counts of burglary in Marin Municipal Court.

Stark, suspected as being a member of a San Francisco burglary ring, appeared before Judge Joseph G. Wilson. He waived preliminary hearing, which means he will be bound over to Marin Superior Court for arraignment on Monday.

Stark is charged with burglaries of Silveira School, Santa Venetia School, San Rafael High School, Blessed Sacrament Church in Santa Venetia, McPhail School and Davidson School.

Marinites Buy Beef At Exposition

The buyers included Valhalla Inn, Sausalito; Woodland Restaurant, Kentfield; Meadow Club, Fairfax; Purity Stores and Lucky Stores.

SHELL

Should a motorist be influenced by what is happening in the air? Shell, you know, has long been a pioneer in the development of fuels and lubricants for aircraft as well as cars. (Today if you fly by jet, it's almost certain there's a Shell product flying with you.) Much of this progress has been translated into benefits for your car—TCP* additive, for instance. Try Super Shell with TCP and discover how smooth your car can run—how far you can go on a gallon. Your Shell dealer is the man to see.
